One Innocent, Two Guilty Pleas Heard by Local Court

Two persons pleaded guilty and one person entered a plea of innocent at arraignments held in Pickaway County Common Pleas Court today.

Kay Roger Lowery, 18, Lowery Lane, pleaded guilty to charges of rape. William LaGrow, 111 Water St., pleaded guilty to a charge of failure to provide for minor children.

John M. Thomas, 153 Huston St., pleaded innocent to a charge of driving a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicants (OMVI). He was released under continuance of his $200 bond.

Lowery, charged with the rape of a 13-year-old Williamsport girl, was committed to the Lima State Hospital for observation, as required by law.

LAGROW was placed on probation for three years and ordered to pay $27 support money weekly to his wife and three children. He also was instructed to refrain from inhabiting places that sold intoxicating liquors.

John Lesley Teets, 47, Route 1, Mt. Sterling, will not be arraigned until the court appoints him an attorney. After consulting his attorney, Teets will enter a plea.

He is charged with second degree murder for the shotgun slaying of his wife, Frances, on September 6. He was bound to the County Grand Jury for first degree murder without bond.

The September term of the Grand Jury, which met Friday, indicted Teets for second degree murder, reducing the original charge.

Estell Grayson, indicted for carrying a concealed .22 caliber revolver, failed to appear due to a mixup in dates for his arraignment.

His arraignment was rescheduled for 9:30 a. m. Tuesday. Charles A. Graham, 306 Northridge Road, did not appear. He was indicted for OMVI.

Newspaper Week Hailed By President

WASHINGTON (AP)—Zeal and accuracy in the nation's newspapers are needed to "make history move steadily forward in the direction of freedom and justice," President Eisenhower says.

In a statement issued for the 20th annual observance of National Newspaper Week, which begins today, the President said: "Your newspaper—freedom's textbook" is a "fine theme for this year's observance. To me, it stands for the hopes and achievements of American journalism.

"As our editors report the daily affairs of their communities with zeal and accuracy, they help to supply our citizens with the lessons of history, together with the information which is required to make history move steadily forward in the direction of freedom and justice.

"I am delighted to add my best wishes for the success of National Newspaper Week."

Dayton Rubber Co. Rapped by Agency

WASHINGTON (AP)—Price discrimination charges were brought by the Federal Trade Commission today against the Dayton Rubber Co., Dayton, Ohio.

The FTC said Dayton gave illegal price concessions, up to 25 per cent, to favored wholesale purchasers of its fan belts, radiator hoses and other automotive products.

The firm also was accused of requiring customers to enter into agreements which allegedly have restrained prices and thwarted competition.

The FTC said dealers must agree to resell the product at prices fixed by Dayton and in some cases are told what customers they may deal with. The company has 30 days in which to answer the complaint.

Errol Flynn Dies Laughing

Faulty Heart Blamed For Actor's Death

VANCOUVER, B.C. (AP) — Errol Flynn, whose real-life adventures often outdid his swashbuckling movie roles, died Wednesday night in an apartment where he had dropped in for a drink. He apparently suffered a heart attack.

"He died laughing," said Mrs. George Caldough, Flynn's hostess during a visit here. "He was having a good time and enjoying himself."

The graying, 50-year-old actor was en route to the airport with Mr. and Mrs. Caldough and his 17-year-old protege Beverly Aadland.

"We just dropped in to see some friends for a cocktail," Mrs. Caldough said.

She said Flynn complained of a pain in the back and Dr. Grant Gould, whom they were visiting, took him into another room. Flynn lost consciousness while the doctor was absent from the room for a moment, she said.

An inhalator crew worked over Flynn for 57 minutes and then he was taken by ambulance to a hospital, where he was pronounced dead on arrival.

Miss Aadland, who rode to the hospital in the ambulance, was placed under sedation.

"Women," said Flynn on his arrival here six days ago, "well, that speaks for itself. I like young women because they give you a feeling of youth."

He came to negotiate for the sale of his $100,000 yacht Zaca. Caldough reportedly was interested in the luxury vessel.

Flynn's dashing manner both on and off the screen raised the blood pressure of feminine admirers and male rivals. It also brought him headlines — headlines he said he wanted to avoid.

"The search for anonymity has been my true failure," he maintained.

The actor was married three times. He was separated from his current wife Patrice Wymore, who is appearing at a Washington, D.C., night club.

CHS-McClain Test Promises Large Crowd

Circleville High School is expecting its largest football crowd in several years when Greenfield McClain invades here Friday night.

According to Greenfield school officials, approximately 1,000 McClain fans are expected to travel here for the vital South Central Ohio League test. Both teams are undefeated in loop play.

CHS officials today said additional bleacher sections will be erected to handle the expected overflow crowd. The school has requested four policemen and six auxiliary deputy sheriffs to direct traffic and keep order.

Tickets will be on sale as usual at the gate. Kickoff time is set for 8 p. m., following a special ceremony slated by the Circleville Booster Club.

Girl Is Locked In Room 2 Years

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — A 7-year-old Phoenix girl, suffering from severe malnutrition, was in the county hospital today after spending the last two years locked in a small bedroom.

Bonnie Marie Shelton weighed only 28 pounds. Doctors said she should weigh about 55 pounds.

Her mother, Ruth Shelton, 31, arrested on a tip from a relative, was charged with contributing to the delinquency of a minor. Officers indicated additional charges may be filed later.

Juvenile officer Philip Morgan said Mrs. Shelton admitted keeping her daughter locked in the bedroom. He quoted her as saying the child suffered from a glandular disorder "and would eat all the food in the house if I let her."

U.N. Fact-Finder Denies Chinese General Tale

TOKYO (AP) — A member of the U.N. fact-finding team on Laos expressed astonishment today at a report the group had received evidence Red China's former commander in Korea is masterminding the rebellion in Laos.

"I've never heard of it," said Brig. Gen. Heriberto Ahrens of Argentina. "This is the first time I've heard it. I'm really astonished."

'58 Cigarette Output Would Reach to Moon

WASHINGTON (AP) — Enough cigarettes were produced last year to make a carpet seven feet wide and one cigarette thick from the earth to the moon, the Agriculture Department reported today.

To reach the moon at its closest point to the earth, the cigarette carpet would have to extend 221,900 miles.

The world output was 1,971 billion cigarettes—470 billion of them American. That was an increase of 4½ per cent over 1957 for the world total.

Vigilante Defendant Is Freed

CHELSEA, Vt. (AP)—Robert O. Welch of Newbury was acquitted of murder today by a directed verdict which ended Vermont's vigilante trial.

Judge Natt L. Divoll Jr. told the jury he and the two side judges, who, under Vermont law, sit with the court, had concluded unanimously the case should be ended at this point after defense had rested without calling a witness.

Judge Divoll explained to the jurors that the court first denied a defense motion for a directed verdict but decided to order one on a renewed motion filed after defense counsel Henry Black announced he would present no testimony.

Welch, 46, a school janitor, was indicted along with Frank W. Carpenter, 43, for the slaying of Orville A. Gibson, 47, prosperous Newbury dairy farmer.

Carpenter was not on trial with Welch. He is scheduled for a separate trial.

The state charged in court that Welch was one of a group of Newbury men who set on a vigilante action to punish Gibson for beating his farmhand, Eri Martin, 57, for spilling two cans of milk.

Van Doren Tells Of His 'Distress'

NEW YORK (AP)—"I really did not know of the great interest you had in me until yesterday — and here I am today which is as soon as it was humanly possible for me to meet with you."

It was Charles Van Doren speaking. The 33-year-old English instructor appeared in public Wednesday to accept a subpoena to testify Nov. 2 before a House subcommittee.

The subcommittee has heard testimony that NBC's now defunct Twenty-One show, the program on which Van Doren scored heavily, was rigged.

The subpoena, issued last Friday, summons Van Doren to tell how he won $129,000 on 14 appearances in 1956-57.

At a tumultuous news conference, Van Doren said he "was so distressed by the events of the previous days" that he took a week's leave from his teaching post at Columbia University and land "to gather my thoughts."

Van Doren, reading from a hand-written statement on yellow paper, apologized for what he called "my apparent aversion" to the press for the last several days.

But he refused to discuss his quiz show earnings in advance of his scheduled appearance in Washington.

Rep. Oren Harris (D-Ark), chairman of the investigation, had charged Van Doren with dodging the subpoena.

But Van Doren said in his statement that the first he knew of the order was Monday night and that he then made himself available.

He said he was distressed last week when NBC suspended him as a $50,000-a-year network consultant pending the outcome of the investigation. He got the job after his TV appearances.

In testimony before a New York County grand jury last year Van Doren denied getting help while a contestant. He repeated this later by telegram to the Washington subcommittee.

However, he declined to reaffirm these statements.

The committee also plans to hear testimony about CBS's $64,000 Question, first of the big-money quiz programs.

A statement by counsel Robert W. Lishman in Washington that the subcommittee has information that the show was rigged brought a flood of statements from former participants on that program and a companion show, the $64,000 Challenge.

Among defenders of the first show were former contestants Tom Kane of Buffalo, N.Y., and Myrt Power of Buford, Ga.

Kane said, "To my knowledge the shows I appeared on were absolutely beyond reproach." Mrs. Power said, "If somebody had been giving out the answers I wouldn't have stopped at $32,000."

2 Yanks Win Nobel Prizes

Medical Research Brings Top Honors

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP)—Two American scientists were awarded this year's Nobel prize in medicine for pioneer research into the basic mechanisms of heredity.

They are Dr. Severo Ochoa of the New York University college of medicine and Dr. Arthur Kornberg of Stanford University, California.

The decision was taken by the Swedish Royal Caroline Institute of Medicine and Physiology this afternoon.

The reward signaled an explosive biochemical advance in the basic scientific level of heredity.

The prize this year is worth 220,700 Swedish crowns—$42,606. The money comes from trusts set up under the will of Alfred Nobel, Swedish inventor of dynamite. The prizes first were awarded in 1901 and are given for chemistry, physics, literature, as well as in the field of medicine and physiology. In addition there is the Nobel Peace Prize.

Americans also won the prize for medicine last year. They were George Beadle, Edward Tatum and Joshua Lederberg, for their work in genetics.

The work of Dr. Ochoa and Dr. Kornberg centered on the chemical structural pattern of heredity, notably the key substances of DNA — DesoxyriboNucleic Acid; and RNA—RiboNucleic Acid.

The Caroline Institute said in its official citation that the two American scientists were awarded the prize "for their discoveries of the mechanisms in the biological synthesis of RiboNucleic Acid and DesoxyriboNucleic Acid."

Dr. Ochoa, 54, is a native of Luarca, Spain.

Ohio Idle Total Continues Climb

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Unemployment in Ohio continued to inch upward last week, the Bureau of Unemployment Compensation reported today.

It was a continuation of the trend which began two weeks ago, apparently a side effect of the long steel strike. Until the week which ended Oct. 3, there had been a steady decline for many months in the number of Ohioans collecting BUC benefits.

The low point of 43,452 was reached in the week ended Sept. 26. As of last Saturday, however, the total had risen to 46,343, the BUC reported.

The total of new claims filed last week was 13,814, a considerable jump above the 7,800 new claims filed three weeks earlier.

Driving in City Can Cause Lung Cancer, Doctor Finds

CINCINNATI (AP) — Cigarette smoking is "the primary excitant of lung cancer," Dr. Clarence A. Mills reported today—but he added that in the course of a survey he found the "lung cancer hazard to smokers to be more than doubled "if they drive more than 1,000 miles a month in urban traffic."

Dr. Mills, professor of experimental medicine at the University of Cincinnati's College of Medicine, has just completed bringing up to date a 1955 survey of lung cancer among men in Cincinnati's urban and suburban areas.

Dr. Mills has achieved world renown through pioneering studies on effects of climate on society and still earlier work on pellagra.

"Lung cancer rates are now found to be roughly 50 per cent higher since the beginning of 1956 than in the nine preceding years," he reported. "They are in even closer association with the three major pollution factors: Cigarette smoking, general air pollution and liquid-fuel motor exhaust gases."

Dr. Mills found that although lung cancer incidence among smokers more than doubled if they drove more than 12,000 miles a year in urban traffic, "there was no such effect from even greater driving mileages by country men on the more open country highways."

Dr. Mills predicted that "this association of heightened lung cancer hazards to high urban driving mileages . . . will almost certainly become more emphatic as motor traffic density worsens and human exposure to its hazards lengthens through coming decades.

"The need for legislative action to halt this increasing health menace seems clear and unambiguous," he said, adding:

"The most effective handling of this health problem would seem to include, first, the establishment by the medical profession of safe standards beyond which pollution of urban atmosphere should not be allowed to go, and, second, the translation of these maximum allowable limits into local, state, and federal legislation limiting the output at source of the primary polluting factors. . . ."

Fact-Finding Chief Shies at Any Injunction

Inquiry Panel Given Time Extension for Report to President

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government's chief fact finder said today he is "not without hope" for a settlement of the steel strike that will avert use of a Taf-Hartley law injunction.

George W. Taylor, chairman of President Eisenhower's steel inquiry board, made that comment to a reporter as industry representatives resumed presenting their side of the deadlocked labor dispute to Taylor's three-man panel.

In effect, Taylor was saying he thought it possible a settlement could be reached this weekend.

At the same time, Taylor urged industry and union to resume direct negotiations. Both sides seemed to accept the suggestion but no immediate bargaining was scheduled.

The nation wants a settlement soon of the damaging strike, Taylor lectured both sides.

He said that if they are unable to reach agreement by negotiation, they should consider submitting their differences to arbitration, or a decision by outside neutrals.

R. Conrad Cooper, U.S. Steel Corp. executive, and Union President David J. McDonald replied that they preferred negotiations rather than arbitration.

Taylor said there are two main road blocks thwarting a settlement.

He said these are the work rule changes demanded by the industry, designed to promote operating economy, and the matter of wage and benefit increases for the strikers.

Taylor said he sympathized with the company position that neither the steel industry nor the country wanted a settlement that would touch off a new round of inflation. But he said he questioned that the industry's limit of a 2 per cent increase for the workers was a "magic figure" or a necessarily correct measurement of what could be given that would be noninflationary.

Both sides, the panel chairman said, had room to compromise toward a settlement.

As to the inflation issue, Taylor remarked that a continuing steel strike also would promote some inflation through its impact on the federal budget, through lower tax yields and in various other ways.

The panel is to make a report to Eisenhower on Monday. Once it reports, the way will be cleared for the government to turn to the courts and ask for an order directing that the 500,000 striking workers go back to work for an 80-day cooling off period.

Such orders are authorized by the Taft-Hartley law.

Eisenhower granted the panel an extra three days for its work—moving the deadline, for the board to submit a report to the White House, from Friday to Monday.

The panel conferred separately with the industry and union Wednesday night. Taylor was expected to announce a summary of the strike issues—the areas that need to be resolved before any agreement can be reached—at the close of formal hearings today.

The striking Steelworkers Union concluded its version of the strike issues late Tuesday.

Today was the 93rd day of the strike—the longest in the industry's history.

As industry management continued to give the panel its side of the dispute, H. C. Lumb, representing Republic Steel Corp., discussed proposals for tighter contract provisions against wildcat strikes.

Lumb conceded at the outset that the international officers of the Steelworkers Union have been responsive and tended to cooperate in the past in quelling sudden, unauthorized strikes while labor contracts were in force. But he said that this has come after the damage has been done.

There is a measure of agreement on the issue of wildcat strikes, Lumb said, but there is disagreement over how to make contract terms applying to them

Community Fund Tops 70 Per Cent

The Pickaway County Community Fund campaign stood at 70 per cent of the $30,000 goal today with more gifts due at headquarters before the week is out.

A total of $21,331 has been turned in at headquarters in the American Hotel. That leaves $8,669 still to be collected if the goal to be topped.

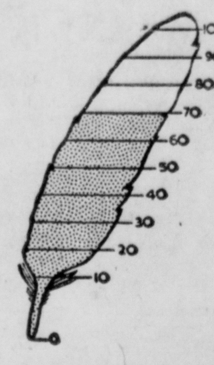
The Pickaway County Community Fund supports the Red Cross, Youth Canteen, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and Salvation Army. Without Community Fund donations these agencies will have to curtail their services to the whole county next year.

Fund officials today urged solicitors to complete their calls and turn in their gifts to headquarters before the weekend. They asked that the work be completed before Pumpkin Show which starts Wednesday.

It is known that some solicitors have made their calls but have not reported to headquarters. It is also known that some persons have not been contacted by Community are urged. In the event a volunteer worker has not called upon any resident of Pickaway County the resident is asked to call fund headquarters GR 4-3012 and a call will be made.

Headquarters in the American Hotel is open from 1-5 p. m. and 6-8 p. m. each day this week and until 5 p. m. Saturday.

SECOND CALLS by solicitors



U.S. To Offer Own Arms Plan

Proposal To Rival Khrushchev's Idea

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Word circulated today that the United States will present a rival arms plan when Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's total disarmament proposal goes before the 10-nation East-West committee in Geneva.

Sources close to the U.S. delegation to the U.N. said American disarmament experts are working quietly with the State Department on a plan covering the whole arms question as well as the thorny problem of adequate controls.

U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge hinted some such move was afoot when he spoke in the disarmament debate before the U.N. Assembly's main Political Committee Wednesday.

Lodge noted that President Eisenhower has set in motion a concentrated disarmament review which will prepare the United States to participate "constructively" in the Geneva talks, slated to open after the Assembly ends.

Informants stressed that the United States will not present any arms plan before the General Assembly this session but will wait for the Geneva parley.

Lodge told the Assembly that some agency such as an international police force would be necessary to preserve peace after disarmament. He recommended that the U.N. Disarmament Commission try to decide what type of force would be needed and what principles of international law should govern it.

Woman, 45, Can See Now, Thanks to Boy

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP)—What is it like to see again after being nearly blind for 42 years?

"It's like a bright streak of lightning. It's all so new."

The words were those of Mrs. Duane Vincent, 45, whose eyesight may have been restored through the thoughtfulness of a young boy.

Mrs. Vincent underwent a corneal transplant two weeks ago. Doctors say it may be several months yet before it is known whether the operation is a complete success.

The corneas were from the eyes of Bobby Jenness, 12, who died Sept. 30 in a traffic mishap. He, and other members of his family, had willed their eyes to an eyebank only three months before Bobby was killed.

Mrs. Vincent left the hospital Wednesday. Her first wish was to see Bobby's mother Mrs. William S. Jenness.

The two women embraced emotionally, then traveled to Mrs. Vincent's home together where they spent some time talking, mostly about Bobby.

Although doctors cautioned that it will be months yet before they pletely restored, Mrs. Vincent can be sure her eyesight is com- said she can tell the difference already.

"What's the matter, no bargains?" asked Mrs. Charles Khoury.

"No bargains," answered the other woman.

Mrs. Khury told police the woman apparently was carrying something under her coat.

Verdict Favors Railroad in Howell Case

Nearly 10 years of legal battles and technicalities came to an abrupt end for Fred Howell yesterday when a Pickaway County Common Pleas Court petit jury returned a verdict in favor of the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway Co.

The civil case petit jury deliberated one hour and 10 minutes after being presented the case at approximately 3:15 p. m. yesterday.

Howell, 101 Reber Ave., was suing the C&O for $31,888 as a result of his wife's death on Aug. 30, 1949, more than 10 years ago.

Mrs. Howell was killed when the automobile she was driving was struck by a northbound C&O train at a private crossing on the Frank Bowling farm south of here.

* * *

FINAL ARGUMENTS were presented yesterday afternoon after the C&O's legal counsel presented no witnesses.

Presiding Judge William Ammer gave the jury a 38-minute general charge, with 10 special instructions and two special findings of facts.

Judge Ammer said this was one of his most difficult cases to hear due to the many legal technicalities involved.

Howell's suit charged the C&O with negligence in allowing weeds and bushes to grow near the crossing, obstructing the deceased's vision.

The suit also charged the C&O's train engineer was negligent in his failure to blow his whistle or bell as he neared the crossing.

Harrison Smith Jr., member of the Columbus law firm of Wilson and Rector, representing the C&O, countered Howell's suit by stating that the plaintiff failed to prove necessity of damages, that testimony showed no negligence on the part of the C&O, and that Mrs. Howell was guilty of contributory negligence.

* * *

COURT OFFICIALS agreed that state laws on the responsibility of persons crossing railroad tracks was explicit and favored the railroads in most respects.

MORE . MORE . MORE . MORE

Judge Ammer earlier had overruled Smith's request for a directed verdict in favor of the defendant.

Richard W. Penn, local attorney at 114½ N. Court St., assisted Smith in the case as did C&O Agent Shini.

Members of the petit jury were: Berlin Noble, 452 Stella Ave., foreman; Kenneth Reid, Route 1, Williamsport; Mrs. Marie E. McGhee, Route 2, Williamsport; Aulton E. Carter, Williamsport; Mrs. John M. Yunker, Knollwood Village; Mrs. George A. Fissell, 705 N. Pickaway St.;

* * *

MRS. WILSON M. WOOD, 117 Dunmore Road; John J. Seibel, Route 1, Mt. Sterling; John S. Caldwell, Route 3; Mrs. Dorothy Ward, Ashville;

William G. Koch, Route 2, and Lewis J. Holderman, 609 N. Court St. Mrs. Leo McClure, Route 3, was the 13th juror and was dismissed when the jury went into session.

The jury verdict was nine for the defendant and three against. Those voting against the C&O were Mrs. McGhee, Caldwell and Holderman.

Man Appears On Old Charge Of Burglary

The Pickaway County Common Pleas Court today placed Billy Joe VanSickle on three years probation.

VanSickle was indicted by the October, 1955 County Grand Jury for breaking and entering an uninhabited dwelling during the night season and grand larceny.

He was accused of breaking and entering Bowdle's Sinclair Service Station on Aug. 13, 1955.

VanSickle was charged with stealing personal property valued at $100 from the service station.

* * *

HE WAS APPREHENDED by Columbus Police on Aug. 25, 1955 or burglary. Franklin County Common Pleas Court tried and convicted VanSickle on this charge.

He was sentenced Oct. 5, 1955 to the Ohio State Penitentiary, Columbus, for 1 to 15 years at hard labor. He recently was released and brought here.

VanSickle pleaded guilty to both counts and Judge Guy G. Cline deferred imposition of sentence and placed him on probation.

Judge Cline took into account VanSickle's past imprisonment of four years. Judge Cline sat in for Judge William Ammer who requested the move since he had prosecuted VanSickle in 1955 when he was County Prosecutor.

VanSickle, on Sept. 12, 1958, asked for acquittal on both charges because more than two terms of the County Grand Jury had passed and he hadn't been brought to trial.

Judge Cline refused to dismiss the charges, stating that previous court rulings had held that this law does not apply to persons confined in prisons.

effective. What the industry proposes, he said, is to provide a deterrent, and place responsibility on local unions for unauthorized strikes in their jurisdictions.

In addition, Lumb said, the industry wants to make it clear that any employe participating in a wildcat strike is subject to discharge as well as to automatic, stiff money penalties. But he said the steel companies are willing to drop the proposals for financial penalties if they get the firing feature.

John Morse, Bethlehem Steel lawyer, told the fact finders that to meet sudden changes in orders the steel companies need a contract provision entitling them to change work schedules for their employes without penalty.

Morse also said steel companies need greater latitude in scheduling employe vacations.

Industry representatives have been pounding on the theme that economies must be effected; that union demands confront the nation with the question whether to "accept another inflationary wage increase in steel, or to go without steel."

College Becomes More Costly

Many parents are awakening to the high cost of higher education, and according to the Ford Foundation they are probably receiving a jolt back to reality which may jeopardize college graduation for their offspring.

The foundation financed a survey of 5,000 American families to ascertain what planning was being done toward college educations for American youths, and general family attitudes toward the subject. Results of the survey indicated an almost total ignorance of college costs and an equally disturbing lack of any plan for saving toward higher education.

Despite the fact that two-thirds of the parents questioned expect to send their children to college, 60 per cent of them have yet to put one dollar in a savings fund for this purpose. Among the remainder the average savings amount to only $150 a year.

This same survey found the student cost per year, on the average, for private schools, $1,574; for state colleges, $1,370; for junior colleges, $988, and for city colleges, $861. This is a range of $4,000 to $6,300 for four years of college and would take a minimum of 27 years to accumulate at an average of $150 a year. It is not surprising that many able students never go to college (only one of four goes beyond high school), and that many others leave college for lack of money.

Many of those who said they wanted their children to go on with their education offered puny excuses for not preparing themselves financially for what has become an expensive necessity. Many offered no excuse at all, but simply hadn't thought about it. Others expected their children to pay the bills themselves. Almost one-third expected to pay from current income.

Those who find themselves in the latter category will save many heartaches by familiarizing themselves with the cost of modern education. It is no longer possible to send a son or daughter through college by cutting down on cigars or postponing buying a new car for several years. A college education has become one of the more costly purchases, but it is an investment which becomes more valuable every year.

Cinderella Story, Part II

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—Cinderella's real life story, as it might be told by a modern literary ghost:

"And so they lived happily ever!" So ends the fairy tale, after I married the prince who found only my foot would fit the glass slipper.

Actually, it was only afterward that I learned what real unhappiness was. Before that I had been only a young, dreaming girl. marriage turned me into a woman.

No one knows how many broken hearts weep in palaces. My life with the prince became a living hell.

To begin with, I didn't know my way around a palace. The courtiers, jealous of my sudden rise, laughed at my untutored accent. They jeered when I tried to eat raw oysters with a spoon. But court etiquette?

I began to feel blue all the time. The prince was no help. He was no man, but a weak foolish boy.

It broke my heart when I found out he was making love to half the chambermaids in the palace. After that I ceased to care.

Success is very lonely, particularly if it comes too fast. I found out nobody loved me for myself. They all had their hands out.

My old friends sponged on me. So did my old enemies.

My mother-in-law, the queen, turned against me, too.

I grew more lonely. I found champagne made me feel better, but soon the old bubbly wasn't strong enough.

From the bottle I went on to the needle.

Thanks to the psychiatrist's couch and two trips to the federal hospital at Lexington, Ky., I've kicked the habit.

Next week my divorce from the prince is final.

What lies ahead? Well, the king —my ex-father-in-law, wants to shed his wife and make me the new queen.

It is the kind of marriage that makes sense. The king is an older man, a father symbol who can give me the emotional security I crave. And I can give him the understanding he needs from a young and ardent heart.

Why Did Khrushchev Visit?

By George Sokolsky

By now we ought to know why it was so pressing upon Nikita Khrushchev to come to the United States. The visit was unusual.

If he came to discuss affairs of state with President Eisenhower, why was it necessary for him to traipse about this country exhibiting himself before his conversations with the President at Camp David?

If he came here to learn about the United States, why did he reject every opportunity afforded him to absorb knowledge?

If he came to make peace, why did his associate, Red China, start warlike operations in India?

If he came to project himself as a friendly person, why did he insult every person he met privately or on special occasions?

If he acme to project himself course, why was every proposal so couched as to be impossible of acceptance?

In a study of "The Rise of Khrushchev" by Myron Rush of the Rand Corporation, written before Khrushchev's visit to the United States, this is said:

"In ruling Russia Khrushchev faces grave political problems, just as Stalin did in 1930 after he had conquered his opposition. The Soviet people demand a better life for their hard labors over long years. Intellectuals and students seek greater freedom of expression for themselves and higher living standards for the people. Economic managers are restive under the party's increasing pressures and long for the rationalization of economic life.

"In the satellite states the people seek national expression and improved living standards. Nuclear weapons, the over-arching political question of the age, present the Khrushchev regime, no less than Western leaders, with awful problems. For their solution political imagination, no less than Khrushchev's evident daring and initiative, is required."

Cound this have been the reason for Khrushchev's visit? Was the Cold War pressing him too tightly? His speeches here were those of a desperate man who continued to shout, "I ain't afraid of you. I want to be your friend but I ain't afraid of you."

So he arrived accompanied by a rocket that hit the moon. Must we lie down and die? So he congratulated himself on Russia's enormous achievements and that he will pass us by in six or seven years. Walter Reuther hit him hard with good, workingman arguments and all that Reuther got for his pains were personal insults; David Sarnoff told him off and was called the capitalist Minsk with distinct anti-Semitic overtones.

The picture of this visit cannot be composed. There are too many false notes. Nothing can be put together. Yet, it is impossible to believe that there was not a well-considered purpose in this visit.

The British and some others believe that Khrushchev is beginning to be scared by the Red Chinese; that he is forced willynilly to make overtures to the West lest he be caught in a pincers between the West and the Red Chinese.

It seems to me that it is too early for that. Before Red China can risk moving into Siberia, Russian Turkestan and Afghanistan, it will have to reduce India to a fief. An unfriendly India, Burma, Malaya, can vitiate any advantages of the conquest of Tibet and the effort to fill out the Chien Lung line in South East Asia. Mao Tze-tung has not the power, if unassisted by Soviet Russia, to hold the vast area of more than 4,000,000 square miles.

Whereas Mao's Communism is very different from Khrushchev's, Mao being an orthodox Marxist, nevertheless Red China must remain an ally if not a vassal of Soviet Russia for a prolonged period. To bank on a split between Moscow and Peking seems to me premature.

However, it is obvious that Khrushchev failed in convincing Mao that a truce to all military activity is necessary even if the immediate objective be only to narcotize the United States.

Mao is not in a position to accept such a program. For if he ceases hammering upon the one tune, hatred for the United States, he may lose his people altogether. He must sing that song every day. He must appear warlike, the conqueror, the master of Asia For hs rules one of the most warlike peoples on Earth.

I once calculated that in 1,000 years of Chinese history, I could not find 100 years of peace. Maybe this is an exaggeration but it is not far from the truth. And Mao is acting accordingly.

Most of the coal supply of the United States comes from underground mines. The rest comes from the surface where soil, rock and coal are lifted by power shovels.

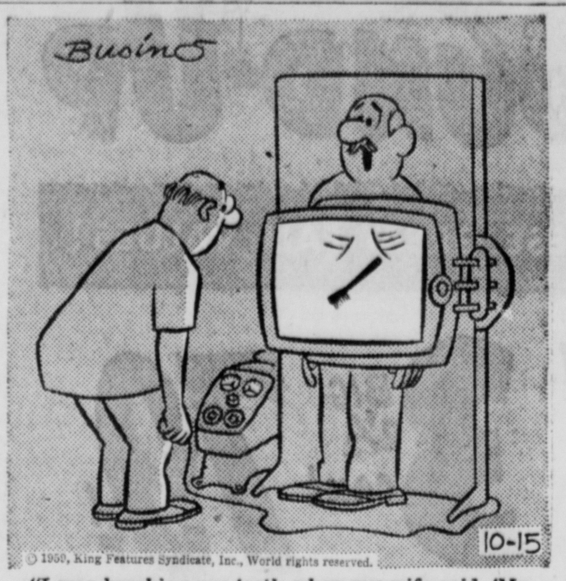
LAFF-A-DAY



"I was brushing my teeth when my wife said, 'Mr. Helfer of the Internal Revenue to see you, dear.'"

Overweight Is Too Common

By Herman N. Bundesen, M.D.

What abnormality is most frequently found among our general population?

You don't have to be a quiz expert to answer this one. Obviously, it's the overweight problem.

Records seem to indicate that about 720 million patients visited doctors' offices last year. Of that number, some 12 million sought treatment for obesity!

And this still is a small percentage of the persons who do need help with their overweight problems. It is estimated h tat between 36 million and 50 million Americans are too fat for their own good.

Strangely, athough nearly twice as many men as women are overweight, as a rule the women are the ones who do something about reducing.

Of the 12 million stout persons who asked their doctors for help last year, 82 per cent of them were women.

Now let me ask a rather personal question: Are you one of the 50 million persons who should reduce?

I've given you some tips in the past on how to tell whether you are overweight. Let me pass along one more method. It's called the ruler test.

First, lie perfectly flat on a bed or the floor. Relax.

Then place a foot-long ruler on your abdomen with one end between the flare of your ribs.

If your abdomen is normal, the ruler will lie flat. But if it points upwards and away from your ribs, you, in all likelihood, are fat.

Of course, other factors such as gas, accumulation of fluid, enlarged organs, tumors or pregnacy also can cause the ruler to tilt upward.

But your problem, I dare say, probably is merely too much weight.

Why are your overweight?

It's not simply because you eat too much. It goes far beyond that. In fact, just about all of our cherished modern conveniences figure in the picture.

I'll tell you all about it in another column soon.

Question and Answer

Frequent Reader: I have had burning sensations on my head, mostly on the back of my head and just above the ears.

Do you think this is the result of an accident I had about three months ago when I ran into a clothesline which caught me right between the eyes and burned terribly at the time?

Answer: The burning sensation in the head could be due to the accident you describe but may be the result of other conditions.

It is estimated Americans consumed 32 billion bottles of soft drinks in 1958, or 184 bottles per person.

The World Today

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
Associated Press News Analyst

Natural calamities and other factors have combined to create a critical food situation in Red China. The Peiping government is instituting measures which have the look of rigid food rationing.

This information is gleaned from the official newspaper of the Chinese Communist party, the People's Daily. It has just announced details of what the party calls a "plan for food consumption and economizing in food consumptin."

While the party paper insists the food outlook in China is favorable, it acknowledges that it has undertaken a "shock publicity campaign" to cut down excessive consumption. Party members have undertaken to "explain the truth to the masses."

"They have raised the consciousness of the masses and extensively disseminated throughout all households the call of the party for the practice of economy in food consumption," the paper says. "Many refectories (public dining halls) and families have taken the initiative to draft their plans to economize in food consumption.

"Economy in food has thus become the social fashion. In preparing meals they have blended course and fine food grains, adjusted the cooking of food grains for both thin and thick mixtures, distinguished between greater and lesser consumption of meals, and rationed consumption according to the number of persons."

The party has directed that after the autumn harvest, these measures must be adopted in all areas.

The party blames its food woes in part on the number of natural disasters — floods and droughts — which ravaged many areas in Red China during the summer. But there are other factors.

One of the most important of these must be the shift of populations from rural areas to the cities in the intensive drive of the Red Chinese to industrialize at breakneck speed.

It is also more than possible that the commune system forced upon the farm communities has further interfered with farm production. There has been much reason to suppose that the regimentation of the Chinese farmers has met with serious resistance.

So the Communist party is faced with this situation: The autumn harvest probably will mean a barely adequate supply of food for the fall and winter months, but there is little reserve to fall back upon next spring and summer, when the food situation can become so troublesome as to deserve the term crisis.

Dear Abby...

By Abigail VanBuren

He's Respectable, but Sick

DEAR ABBY: We have had a "Peeping Tom" reported in our neighborhood twice in the past year. Nobody could catch him.

Last night to my amazement, I saw a neighbor of ours prowling around my back yard. Then he climbed up on another neighbor's upstairs porch and just sat there looking in her window while she undressed. My heart was beating sixty miles an hour. I called my husband. He said for us to keep quiet because this man is a well-to-do, respected businessman in town. He is married and has a nice family, too. I think he should be reported but my husband forbids me to get mixed up in it. Can you advise me?

SAW HIM MYSELF

DEAR SAW: No healthy-minded man believes like your neighbor. Even though he has enjoyed a respectable reputation, there is every indication that he is sick. You will do him, his family, and your community a big favor if you promptly report him to the police.

DEAR ABBY: I have a mad crush on my Science teacher. I am 16 and he is around 32 or 33. He is married so there is no hope for me, but I can't stop feeling the way I do about him.

At the beginning of the semester he was very nice to me, but I did some very stupid things, and I mean stupid. Now he ignores me.

The most stupid thing I did was trying to take his picture in class. He sent me out of the room for that. How can I get him to like me?

LITTLE GIRL BLUE

DEAR LITTLE: Your attentions to this teacher have obviously been a source of embarrassment to him. You are underdeveloped (emotionally) and the poor teacher is overexposed (to sweet young things). Get the situation in focus and accept the inevitable negative.

DEAR ABBY: My wife came from a broken home. She told me that she wanted to be absolutely certain that we didn't let that happen to our children. I admired her attitude. But, Abby, how long would you give a wife to "test" a marriage?

We have been married 14 years and she is still waiting to see if our marriage will "last."

I am 43 and my wife is 39, and she is still "not sure." I am getting very disgusted with her. Can you help with a few words in... your column?

WANTS A FAMILY

DEAR WANTS: Your marriage is liable to "last" longer than the ability to reproduce. A woman who deliberately delays having a family until she is 40 is being unfair to herself, her husband and to any children she bears. I suspect that your wife fears childbirth for other reasons, and is using this as an excuse to put it off. Talk it over with her. And encourage her to place her confidence in a competent doctor.

Shower Honors Miss McFee

A miscellaneous bridal shower was held for Miss Phyllis McFee, bride-elect of Mr. William Eccard, at the home of Miss Melba White, 208 North Scioto St. Miss White and Mrs. Charles Bass were co-hostesses for the occasion.

The evening was spent playing games after which the gifts were opened.

Refreshments were served while the guests listened to a surprise tape-recording of the evening.

Plans for the Country Store to be featured by the Women of St. Philip's Church November 21 were discussed at the meeting held in the St. Philip's Church Parish House last evening.

Co-chairmen for the event are Mrs. Andrew Thomas and Mrs. Robert Hutzelman. Members of the church are urged to place advance orders for mincemeat with the chairmen before November 14th.

The first fall meeting was opened with devotions led by Mrs. Robert Smith. The president, Mrs. Arthur Johnson, called for various committee reports. Mrs. Melvin Thompson reported on the UTO ingathering.

Mrs. William Huber requested all members of St. Philip's Church to present the church with memorabilia with the hope of establishing a worthwhile collection of valuable keepsakes. The church beautification program was discussed.

Mrs. William Huber announced the formation of group Bible classes to be conducted as a six-weeks course. Mrs. Robert Hutzelman reported on the delivery of periodicals to the London Prison Farm.

Miss Bess Fry presented missionary projects for Indiana, South Dakota, the Virgin Islands and Japan, which were approved by the group. Mrs. Charles Anderson announced the Unicef collection will be held on October 29th.

Announcement was made of the Regional meeting to be held at St. John's Church in Lancaster on October 27th.

Following the business meeting, Mrs. William Huber presented a program on the Church of South India. The Church of South India represents the united effort of the Anglican, Presbyterian, Methodist and Congregational churches.

Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Huber served as hostesses for the evening.

Child League Holds Meeting

Child Culture League meeting was held in the home of Mrs. Harold Moffitt, 404 E. Mound St., Thursday, October 1.

Mrs. Robert Barnes, president, opened the business meeting. A discussion, "What Would You Do", was in charge of Mrs. John Jenkins.

Members attending the CCL State Convention in Dayton on October 7th were Mrs. Jim Trimmer, Mrs. Lee Berry, Mrs. Marsh Winters, Mrs. Robert Barnes and Mrs. Annette Merriman.

Refreshments were served to 16 members by the hostess.

Mrs. Rose Hosts Circle 5 Meet

Mrs. Donald Rose, Route 3, hosted Circle No. 5 meeting WSCS of First Methodist Church last evening in her home. There were 14 members present.

Mrs. Doris Moats led devotions. Mrs. Roliff Wolford had charge of the program. Her topic was entitled "Faces to Reflect the Light".

The business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Clark McFarland, chairman.

Co-hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Clark McFarland, Mrs. Lester Smith, Mrs. O. J. Towers, Mrs. Dwight Weiler, Mrs. C. E. Linn, and Miss Mary Clark.

Israeli Movie Star Finds Hollywood Demands Changes

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The movies' newest star is an Israeli girl who is finding out how Hollywood can change her life. She has already lost her name and several pounds.

Twenty-year-old Elana Eden has the leading role in the story of "Ruth," 20th Century-Fox's three-million-dollar biblical epic. She was chosen over many name actresses, and now the studio is molding her to fit movie standards.

"They gave me a new name," the dark-haired beauty said wonderingly. "My real name is Cooper, but that sounded too English. They wanted me to have something that sounded more Jewish. So they picked Eden, because it is mentioned in the Bible."

She was also told that her hips were too ample for American movie tastes. So she is taking a daily pounding from a masseuse. At lunch, she had a decorous fruit and cottage cheese salad.

Aside from such minor matters, the studio is high on her possibilities as a dramatic actress. If she succeeds, she owes part of her thanks to another Jewish girl, Anne Frank.

Elana was one of the five finallists for the lead in "The Diary of Anne Frank." A drama student in Israel, she had been chosen for a test during the world-wide search for the movie Anne. When Millie Perkins won the role, Elana returned to her studies.

But producer Sam Engle remembered her test when he was searching for a Ruth. She was flown to London for another test.

The test, turned out well. She was invited here for more. The girl has had more tests than an astronaut and has passed them all.

Cleveland Area Now Feeling Steel Strike

CLEVELAND (AP) — Cleveland's economy, burdened by a 93-day steel strike, is showing signs of strain.

However, business still is better than it was at this time last year, during the recession, the Cleveland Federal Reserve Bank reports.

The most apparent effects of the strike are rising relief rolls, the sharp economic pinch on idle steelworkers, and slowdown of production in industries which rely on steel.

Idle steelworkers have managed to keep up with payments on home and other debts. Said one lending institution official:

"I doubt if we had more than six or seven that couldn't make their payments. The picture may change at the end of the month."

Most overdue bills are extended. Creditors expressed the opinion that the steelworkers, as a group, are pretty good risks.

As the strike drags on, the number of employes idled in related industries continues to grow. For each two striking steelworkers in the Cleveland-Lorain area, an employe in a related industry is idle. The total laid off in steel using industries in this area is 14,000.

Meanwhile, business fell off slightly. The Federal Reserve Bank here reported that last week declines were noted in new and used car sales, building permits, department store sales, rail freight shipments, transit revenue and electric power output. Generally, business levels were above a year ago, the bank said.

The only areas covered in the bank's survey which showed increases last week were retail display advertising and unemployment compensation claims.

Fremont Judge Quitting Office

FREMONT, Ohio (AP) — In a personal protest against what he considers an impossible work load, Judge Bernard J. Hawk steps down from his common pleas bench today in advance of his official resignation Nov. 1.

Judge Hawk announced his resignation Sept. 11. Today, he said, he's cleaning up his work so he can take the rest of the month as an overdue vacation.

The 47-year-old jurist said he has had less than two weeks vacation since he was appointed by former Gov. Lausche three years ago to succeed a deceased judge.

Judge Hawk said he is satisfied with the $9,888 annual salary, but feels the work load is ridiculous. He said he hopes his action will spur the Legislature to corrective action.

Alaska Homestead Job Labeled Tough

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A young man wanting to homestead in Alaska needs more than muscles, sinew, an axe and the pioneer spirit, says the Rt. Rev. William T. Gordon Jr., Episcopal bishop of Alaska.

He also needs about $10,000.

The bishop said the much publicized Michigan '59er caravan is regarded in Alaska as a prime example of inadequate planning. He added that the original objective of the caravan failed, some returned, and some found jobs elsewhere but "those who stayed have been undergoing hardships that none ever contemplated."

Can Yankee Dollar Become Too Strong?

Canadians Believe Their Currency Now Is Embarrassing

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—A dollar can be so strong as to be embarrassing too.

Americans who fret because some Europeans are wondering out loud if the U. S. dollar isn't weakening can take heart today in the word that many Canadians complain that the Canadian dollar is too strong.

It sells at a premium of more than five cents over the American dollar. And that, say our northern neighbors, is bad for business —their business.

And those Americans who have been alarmed lest the United States was pricing itself out of the world market may be comforted somewhat to hear that some Canadians complain that goods can be bought cheaper here than there —their business.

The American dollar situation arises because the total of what we pay foreigners for their products plus what we extend in the form of foreign aid and what we spend abroad on upkeep of military bases and the like—that total exceeds the amount we get for what we sell to other countries.

Hence, other lands have built up their reserves of gold—by buying it from us—and their dollar reserves by putting them in high interest bearing U. S. securities. This makes their currencies look much better than they did a few years back.

It hasn't really weakened the American dollar yet—despite the big outflow of our gold—but it hasn't strengthened it either, by a long shot.

The Canadian situation is a bit different. They still buy more from us than they sell us. This normally would make our dollar stronger than theirs. But in recent years, American dollars have been flowing into Canada in the form of investments, making the overall balance all in favor of the Canadian dollar, and thus putting it at a premium over the American one.

Still another reason for the Canadian dollar's premium status is advanced by speakers at the convention of the Canadian Exporters Assn.

They say the borrowing by Canadian provinces and municipalities in the United States is partly to blame.

Putting the blame, at least in part, on the borrowings by provinces and municipalities, strikes a familiar note this side of the border.

The need of American states and communities to meet their own growing pains has sent them into the money market here for funds in record volume. This has the demand for loans and in sending interest rates to 30-year highs. It also has increased the tax burden.

Unemployment Pay Increase Becomes Effective Friday

Increased unemployment compensation is in store for jobless Ohioans under a new law which becomes effective tomorrow State Representative Ed Wallace of Pickaway County said today.

It is among some 26 new statutes enacted at the recent session of the 103rd General Assembly of Ohio which take effect during this week.

The new law will boost maximum jobless pay from $33 a week to $42 for 26 weeks. Other changes in the law will:

Retain the 26 week compensation period.

• • •

MAKE A dependency allowance of $5 a week for a dependent spouse or dependent child if the claimant has no spouse and $3 a week for each of the two other dependent children for a maximum of $11 for 26 weeks. The old allowance has been $3 a week for each of two dependent children.

Remove provisions for reduction of benefits because of remuneration received as social security, private retirement and military retirement pensions, national guard or reserve training pay and certain kinds of vacation pay.

The changes in the law apply to individuals who file new applications after today.

• • •

A NEW LAW allowing reregistration of voters by mail will become effective Monday.

It will require a board of elections, when a voter's registration is cancelled for failure to vote or transfer within the preceding two calendar years, to send notice to the voter with a reinstatement application card. The elector must return the signed card to the board within 30 days after date of notice.

Another new law, effective today, rearranges the slots for candidates for state offices. It will place the position for attorney general on ballots and voting machines third, after lieutenant governor, instead of last on the state ticket and shifts secretary of state to fourth instead of third.

This law also provides for party line voting on voting machines and is being contested in court. Even if it is held invalid by the court, another new statute which will only realign the positions of state candidates is to become effective November 2.

Other new laws effective this week include those which will:

Cadillac

The Fifty-fifth... and the Finest!

It was shortly after the turn of the century that the first Cadillac car—"the automobile built to the highest standards it is possible to enforce on the production of a motor car"—made its appearance.

Every year since—save for a period when Cadillac devoted its energies to the national defense—a new interpretation of this unique goal has been presented to the world's motorists.

The superlative motor car illustrated above is the fifty-fifth in this unprecedented succession of distinguished automotive creations.

And it is, far and away, the finest and the noblest Cadillac of them all!

Never before has Cadillac artistry created such elegance of form and line. It has a commanding presence that is uniquely Cadillac.

Never before has Cadillac engineering produced so abundantly. The car is smooth and quiet to a degree that challenges belief.

Never before has Cadillac craftsmanship provided such interior luxury. And the complement of conveniences has never been more satisfying.

No matter how many of the fifty-five Cadillacs you may have owned and enjoyed over the years—you still have a wonderful experience ahead of you in this latest "car of cars."

We suggest you see and drive it very soon. And we hope you will come expecting great things.

Permit Is Needed For Spike Heels

MOBILE, Ala. (AP) — Spike heels are illegal in Mobile but a way is provided for women to wear them without breaking the law.

Women will be given a permit which will relieve the city of responsibility in any accidents resulting from falls on city streets and sidewalks. The free permit would apply for all spike heels a woman owns.

An ordinance adopted by the city commissioners bans heels higher than 1½ inches which are less than an inch in diameter.

The ordinance was proposed last week after the commissioners were told that about 50 damage suits had been filed against the city during the past two years by women who had fallen on streets and sidewalks.

Steel Worker Family Now Feeling Pinch

MORRISVILLE, Pa. (AP) — "It's getting difficult. As a matter of fact we are at rock bottom, although there are other families far worse off than we are."

This, explains Helen Galambos, 33, is how the steel strike has affected her family. Her husband is one of the 6,100 employes on strike at U.S. Steel Corp. Fairless Works. They have a 6½-month-old daughter.

Mrs. Galambos says they are a month behind on their mortgage payments and have not been able to pay other bills.

"We're cutting on food where we can," she adds. "We are not eating the way we used to. Many of our meals are stews. We are buying less meat and when we do get it, it's the cheaper grades."

Many other families like the Galambos are in financial trouble. Mortgages are going unpaid. Bills are piling up. Christmas is approaching and there's no money for childrens' toys.

But the wives are not pressuring their husbands to rush into a settlement. Most take the position that their husbands, since they've been out this long, might just as well stay out a little longer until they get what they want.

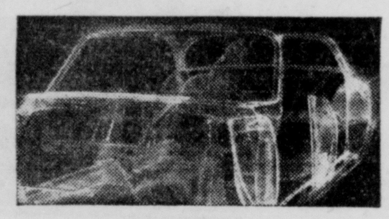
ANNOUNCING THE NEW PLYMOUTH!

SOLID FOR '60! AT YOUR DEALER'S TOMORROW!

BUILT A NEW SOLID WAY TO GIVE YOU SOLID SATISFACTION

CHRYSLER ENGINEERING INTRODUCES A NEW KIND OF PLYMOUTH THAT MARKS A MAJOR BREAKTHROUGH IN CAR DESIGN. BODY AND FRAME UNIT ARE WELDED TOGETHER AS ONE, IN A NEW WAY. MANY PARTS THAT WORK LOOSE, RATTLE AND NEED FIXING IN ORDINARY CARS ARE ELIMINATED. THIS LOW-PRICE '60 PLYMOUTH IS STRONGER AND ROOMIER. IT USES LESS GAS THAN BEFORE. IT RIDES MORE COMFORTABLY, WE BELIEVE, THAN ANY OTHER CAR IN ITS CLASS.



PLYMOUTH'S NEW DURA-QUIET UNIBODY is a rigidly-formed structure, locked by approximately 5400 precise welds. It has no conventional body bolts, braces, struts or stays to give trouble. Road noises and road shocks are dampened. Even the sound of the wind is hushed.

We doubt if any car at any price has ever ridden or handled as well as this new low-price automobile. Practical Stabilizer Design, incorporating rear stabilizer fins, adds stability on the road, cuts wind resistance, gives better gas mileage.

The new Solid Plymouth is a young, exciting car with ten full years of Chrysler Corporation development behind it. It will suit you particularly if you want a feeling of quality and a sense of craftsmanship. It is built carefully and precisely. We believe there is no other car in the low-price field that resembles it.

AN ALL-NEW INCLINED OVERHEAD VALVE "6" IS AMONG FIVE PLYMOUTH ENGINE OPTIONS FOR 1960. The first inclined engine ever in an American passenger car is the new Plymouth 30-D Economy Six, most powerful "6" in America. Time Needed To Prepare For Summit

WASHINGTON (AP)—U. S. officials said today it will be 10 days or two weeks before the Western powers work out an agreement on the timing of a summit conference with the Soviet Union.

One tentative date used here is Dec. 7, but authorities are by no means certain summit preparations can be completed by that time.

The preliminary meetings probably will center around a parley in Washington of Western leaders —President Eisenhower, British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan French President Charles de Gaulle and West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer.

Adenauer came out Tuesday for a Western summit meeting when he met with newsmen at Bonn. In Washington, top diplomatic officials privately supported the idea which, in fact, has been under discussion among Western capitals for several days.

Eisenhower and Secretary of State Christian A. Herter decided last week, following Macmillan's re-election in Britain, that they would prefer to have the summit meeting with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev before the end of the year. They also decided that if there were compelling reasons for delay they could wait until next year.

South Pole Negotiations Opened Today

WASHINGTON (AP)—Representatives of 12 nations open an antarctic conference today to negotiate a treaty which would bar military armaments and installations from the vast frozen continent around the South Pole.

Secretary of State Christian A. Herter was scheduled to welcome the conference delegates.

President Eisenhower initiated the antarctic treaty project last year with a proposal that all countries directly interested in the south polar region should negotiate in accord to minimize international friction there, assure cooperation, scientific research and exploration, and dedicate the region to peaceful purposes.

The 12 nations now meeting here include the Soviet Union along with the United States, Britain and France.

American officials are optimistic about the prospects for the meeting's success. The chief reason is that Antarctica is so remote that it does not involve immediate security interests.

In addition to the Big Four, the countries participating are Argentina, Australia, Belgium, Chile, Japan, New Zealand, Norway and South Africa.

Area School News

MONROE TWP.

The Eighth Grade has been taking up interest and percentage in arithmetic, and in English they have been reviewing sentences and sentence structure. In science they have just finished Topic III over storm areas. In history they have been reading about the Civil War, and in physical education they are learning some different basketball shots.

October 3, the Seniors had a scrap and paper drive. We wish to thank everyone who helped to make it a success. Tuesday, October 6, we had a skating party. Although it wasn't a success, we enjoyed having it. This week Miss Janet Stoer (senior) was elected to represent Monroe at the Pumpkin Show.

In English we have been studying the basal parts of a sentence. In literature we have completed the beginnings of literature up to the Shakespearean Era. In chemistry we have been working in our chemistry workbooks and doing some experiments. We have been studying the Constitution of the United States in American Government.

The First Grade now has an enrollment of 33. Some of them are reading from the book "We Look and See." Others are reading "We Work and Play." They have made colored leaves to put up in their room. Now they plan to make some jack-o-lanterns.

This six weeks the Fourth Grade has six boys and 14 girls who had perfect attendance. They have started a new unit of study "The Eskimos of the Far North." In connection with their study they are building an Eskimo village on their library table. They now have several igloos completed. They have learned that the Eskimos are trying out a new kind of igloo made of plastic blocks. They are enjoying experiments and activities showing what makes things move. Force may come from air molecules, gravity and muscles.

THE BIOLOGY class has been involved in the study of insects for the past two weeks. Friday, Mr Stewart, general science teacher, displayed a small copperhead snake which Jeff and Larry Bigam found on the steps of their home. All of them were careful even with about ¼ inch of glass between them and the little monster. He certainly packed a wallop when he coiled up and struck at the sides of the jar. However, he is safe to watch now that he has been executed.

The Eighth Grade science class has found a difference between the study of science and fiction—even superstitution. You should have seen the list of superstitutions that are common among our citizens today. They have also been observing weather, the types of clouds, temperature changes, barometric reading (air pressure), relative humidity, and wind direction. They have received their first issue of Current Science and Aviation and have been using them to correlate with their weather data.

This year the home economics class is studying sewing and taking up various projects relating to sewing. Most of the orientation has been with types of stitches, color coordination, parts of sewing machine, types of seams, various equipment needed for handwork, and the making of notebooks. They have already begun their first project (an apron). To help meet the extra expenses involved in their department, they have taken up one money project (selling greeting cards).

For the past few weeks the seventh grade geography class has has been studying all aspects of conservation. To conclude their study they will participate in a field trip to the Paul Peck farm, near Atlanta.

Unemployment Still Is Tough Nut To Crack

Problem Hits Nation Despite Prosperity; Deep Reason Studied

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—The high total of those out of jobs is still a problem to lick.

Seasonal factors color the report for September by the Labor Department. Outside work is slackening off, releasing many who want work only in the summer, and students are returning to school. This cuts the labor force.

The report for October will give a more accurate view of what the steel strike and other factors are doing to the unemployment problem.

The steel strike is causing an increasing number of men and women to be laid off in plants where steel supplies have run low, or run out. But these workers know that when steel is on hand again they'll be back on the job.

Part of the trouble goes deeper. The economy is producing all it needs or wants to consume without for work.

The answer usually given to this is to counsel patience. In time, consumer demands will catch up and need more workers. This is small comfort to those out of work now. And besides there are many thousands more growing up and entering the labor force.

Another answer is that there is always a certain number out of work because they are between jobs. Doing seasonal work, as in farming, they move from area to area, from job to job.

And some of the more cynical or hard boiled say it's good for the economy to have a pool of unemployed to draw upon when demand for their labor develops quickly in one industry or another.

Some even more cynical say that the growth of relief programs may have dulled the urge to hunt for jobs or at least a tendency to be choosy about them.

So the current figures on unemployment have to be read with all these things in mind.

Mechanization is making it possible for many plants to make more products faster and with less men. Quite naturally, this is less than welcomed by all the workers in the plant before the new machines came along.

This is one of the issues dividing management and labor in the steel strike.

Economists point out that the history of mechanization has been that in time it actually creates more jobs, if not necessarily in the plant in question. But that takes time. And the union man with a family to feed right now has small taste for the long wait while things work out.

Is Home-Building Promoter Obligated on New School?

CINCINNATI (AP) — Out in Mount Healthy school district, they are debating a new solution to a problem that is becoming more significant as the rush of American families to the suburbs picks up speed.

The problem: Should builders put up land, free or at cost, as sites for new schools? Or, as an alternative, should builders contribute $100 or $200 per house to a school-site fund, and pass the assessment on the homebuyer?

"Yes," says the district planning commission. "No," say the builders.

Several months ago, the plan this kind of help.

So far only one has come through. A new elementary school is going up on the 11-acre tract which that builder furnished free.

Mount Healthy, like most other suburban communities in Ohio, has a school population that runs far ahead of school facilities. Its school district overlaps the city limits on the west, north and south and the unincorporated part is rapidly being filled up with housing developments.

In the five-year period ending next year, the district will have added an estimated 8,000 children.

The district by 1968 expects to need 11 elementary schools (it now has four, with two being built), two junior highs (none now) and a large central high school. (It now has one high school).

Last year, district voters approved a $1,510,000 bond issue. It has a $480,000 high-school bond issue on the ballot this fall. If that passes, the district will then be up against the statutory ceiling — bonded indebtedness not to exceed nine per cent of the assessed valuation of the district.

Operating expenses are not a problem. The district's 13.98-mill rate for school operations is lower than many others in the county.

Rex Ralph, school superintendend, says the district each year gets a little more borrowing power as new houses are put on the tax duplicate.

But he says it will take substantial extra help to maintain today's standards over the next decade. Annual bond issues, assuming they are approved, won't do it alone.

Already kindergarten has been cut out. Planning commission members say there is a good chance lower grades must soon have to be put on a half-day basis.

The commission believes builders have a moral responsibility to help out.

"Of course, it's true they are filling a demand by building homes," Harold Fine says. "But it is also true that by mass-production techniques they are able to build more economically—and at the same time these techniques are almost overnight dumping heavy loads of school children on our school system."

Orville Brown, executive director of the Home Builders' Assn., says:

"We go all the way back to the principle on which our educational system was founded. That is that education is a public responsibility and not the responsibility of some individual or of a certain segment of the population—in this case, a group of new home buyers."

British Seek To Improve Bonn Relations

LONDON (AP)—Britain is planning a major diplomatic drive to improve relations with West Germany after seven months of bickering with Chancellor Konrad Adenauer.

Relations between London and Bonn have been frankly bad since Prime Minister Harold Macmillan journeyed to see Nikita Khrushchev in Moscow last February at the height of the Berlin crisis. Macmillan went without first consulting Adenauer.

Now the British leader has ordered his experts to get cracking on a program to restore relations between the two countries. He has given the task top priority.

Each government has its explanation for the strains and stresses existing between them.

Adenauer has tended to blame the British press, which he suspects is inspired by people he once described as "wire-pullers" in the Foreign Office.

Macmillan and his associates have been inclined to find fault with Adenauer himself. Some have speculated out loud whether the chancellor, at 83, is up to the burdens of office and is still able to follow new concepts of allied policy.

Adenauer evidently thinks any deal with the Soviet Union must be at Germany's expense. He rejects any role implying an inferior status.

Macmillan seems to reason that the facts of life in the nuclear age have to be faced and one is that Germany is not going to be united again on allied terms.

2000 To Be Laid Off At Euclid Body Plant

CLEVELAND (AP) — White Motor Co., builder of heavy trucks has laid off 150 employes because of the steel strike, and General Motors is anticipating layoff of 2,000 at its Euclid Fisher Body station wagon plant Friday.

A GM spokesman said that a shortage of steel is causing the layoffs at Euclid. Earlier this month GM laid off more than 500 workers at its Fisher Body plant on Coit Road for the same reason.

City Jail Inmates To Get Bear Meat

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — Portland city jail inmates will be served bear meat, probably in stew.

A motorist telephoned police and said he had run over a bear on the Columbia Gorge Highway east of Portland.

Would the police like it? Yes.

Big Plastic Sphere To Be Tested Soon

WASHINGTON (AP)—A huge aluminum-coated plastic sphere designed to serve as either an earth satellite or a moon probe is to be tested soon.

A spokesman for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration declined today to pinpoint the date set for the testing beyond saying it will be before the end of the year.

The sphere, details of which were made public several months ago, is undergoing tests at NASA's Langley research center near Newport News, Va.

Researchers are hopeful that the sphere, which measures 100 feet in diameter when inflated, can be utilized as a communications satellite to relay radio signals from one point on earth to other parts of the world.

Dayton Sheriff Asked To Aid in FBI Probe

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. Michael V. DiSalle has asked Montgomery County Sheriff Bernard L. Keiter to cooperate with the FBI in a federal case pending against nine former and present county deputy sheriffs.

In a letter to Keite, DiSalle mentioned a letter he received from the Civil Rights Division of the U. S. Department of Justice which charges Keiter is withholding information from the FBI.

The Justice Department letter to DiSalle states that the deputies are charged with physical brutality imposed to get confessions and with the administration of summary punishment on certain prisoners.

Kingston Unit Pointing to Cage Opener

The Kingston High School basketball squads were trimmed in numbers recently, according to Coach Gary Walsh.

Varsity members chosen were Bill Carmean, David Nogle, Bill Chaffin, Dan Vollmar, Roy Congrove, Russell Kempton, David Hood, George Targee and Gary Cobb.

The remaining varsity berths will go to either Jimmy Beavers, Bill Moss or Bernard Davis. One of the three will be sent to the reserves.

• • •

THE VARSITY has been working on individual and team fundamentals with emphasis on speed. Nogle, Carmean, Vollmar and Chaffin have missed the last two practices due to illness.

They seem to have the front running positions on the starting team, Walsh said today. Congrove, Kempton and Targee are scrapping for the fifth slot.

Cobb and Hood, two juniors, have looked good, but still are bothered by inexperience which should be overcome with actual game participation.

Beavers, Moss and Davis, a sharp-shooting sophomore, are attempting to replace the older veterans. Kingston's reserve first team strength will not be too strong unless several of the junior members develop faster, Walsh said.

Junior high practice started Wednesday under the tutelage of Walsh. Tom Shoemaker coaches the reserve squad. Kingston opens the season against Williamsport on November 6.

Booster Club Fete Set Here Friday

"Booster Club Night" will be a special event at Friday's Circleville - Greenfield football game here.

The Circleville Boosters, devoted to better athletics at CHS, will be recognized for their outstanding efforts to promote local sports.

Officers and directors of the club will be introduced to the crowd during pre-game ceremonies. They will sit on the bench with Tiger players during the game. Special recognition will be given to all local fans who have joined the Boosters this year.

A main event of the evening will be dedication of new football uniforms purchased this season by the Booster Club. The Tigers will be wearing the flashy gear for the first time.

• • •

THE sparkling uniforms include bright red jersies with white numbers on the front, back and shoulders and black and white tips on the three-quarter length sleeves.

The black trousers have a white stripe down each side. The front of the pants is shiny rayon type material and the back is made of form-fitting three-way stretch cloth.

Purchase of the uniforms was a main project for the Booster Club this year. Thanks to local businessmen, professional men and a host of sports fans, the club raised more than $900 to buy the much-needed outfits.

Booster members, CHS coaches and players joined in the drive here to swell club membership. The campaign was launched several weeks ago and was well - received by local business firms and sports fans.

Another Booster project now underway is the presentation of a portable television set. The TV will be presented during halftime of the Washington C. H. game which is slated here November 13.

Touch of Pro Football Seen In New Notre Dame Outfit

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

New names and faces, a new attack and the smart look of professional coaching will mark the Notre Dame football team that plays Michigan State in the national television game Saturday.

Coach Joe Kuharich, who left the pro Washington Redskins last winter to take over for deposed Coach Terry Brennan at Notre Dame, has turned out a team that has won two of its first three games despite a plague of injuries and inexperience.

In fact, Kuharich has seven sophomores on the first team for Saturday's game, including three in the backfield, and a line that has a sophomore left side.

Veteran quarterback George Izo, who played his first 1959 game against California last week, is the only veteran in the backfield. He is supported by sophs George Sefcic and Angelo Daberio as halfbacks, and Gerry Gray at fullback.

Daberio and Gray have seen a good deal of action, with the latter taking over for the injured Jim Crotty against California and winding up as the team's leading ground-gainer with 55 yards in 12 tries, and one touchdown.

Crotty and guard Myron Pottios, both hurt last week, will see no action, with the latter finished for the year with torn knee ligaments.

All of these annoyances have left Kuharich, a former Notre Dame football player, undaunted. He has installed a T-formation pro-type offense, where both of his ends are split 15 to 20 yards, with a halfback in the slot between an end and tackle.

Darrtown Is Baseball Capital Now

DARRTOWN, Ohio (AP) — This may come as a shock to Los Angeles but on the main street in this town with its population of 200 there are two big signs which say "Darrtown, Baseball Capital of the World."

In his home a block away, Walter Alston responded in his usual reticent manner when told members of the Baseball Writers Assn. of America had voted him National League Manager of the Year in an Associated Press poll.

Alston is manager of the Los Angeles Dodgers, who last week won the baseball World Series.

"It sure is nice," said Alston with his shy smile, "but it was a team effort."

The Dodgers last year finished seventh in the National League and then, this year, they came on to tie Milwaukee for the National League pennant, win it in a two-game playoff and then beat the Chicago White Sox in a six-game World Series.

"The fellows worked hard for it," said Alston. "They started the first day of spring training, or even before, because all of them reported in good shape."

What about next year?

"We don't intend to stand pat," he said, "but I can't name any particular spot we want to improve."

Durocher Bares Cleveland Offer

DETROIT (AP) — Leo Durocher says he was offered a three-year contract to manage the Cleveland Indians but turned it down the day before the American League club rehired Joe Gordon.

"There were a couple of other things I wanted in the contract," Durocher told newsmen Wednesday night in explaining why he turned down an offer made by Cleveland General Manager Frank Lane and Vice President Nate Dolin.

"They met with me in Pittsburgh about two weeks before the end of the season," Durocher said. "They made me a solid, three-year offer."

Brown Defense Worries Cards

Cleveland Coach's Theory Halts Team

CLEVELAND (AP)—A defensive maneuver dreamed up by Coach Paul Brown of the Cleveland Browns is giving the Chicago Cardinals fits.

Brown figured the Cardinals, who display their fancy double wing offense here Sunday, could be stopped if the defense concentrated on upsetting plays to the outside—the rollout passes and option plays.

Using this strategy, Cleveland walloped the Cards 34-7 in the mud at Chicago two weeks ago.

Bill McPeak, a Washington Redskins defensive coach, said his team spotted the maneuver in films of the game.

"It stopped the Cardinals the week before so we adopted it."

The result: Washington 23, Cards 14.

There is one drawback to Brown's plan. It leaves the center thinly defended, opening the way for smashes up the middle. Yardage through the middle is conceded, while the defense protects against the long gainer.

Said Chicago Coach Frank Ivy: "The Redskins' defense were set up so that our fullback was wide open. For that reason fullback Mal Hammack did most of the rushing."

However, the Cards weren't able to capitalize on the inside plays.

Ivy was asked why he didn't use halfback John Crow, rated one of Chicago's top backs.

"Crow was called on twice but he didn't get the ball either time. Something went wrong with the handoffs.

"And that, by the way, is our main problem. We've made too many mistakes and have gumbled too many times."

Coach Brown isn't expected to try the same defense again this week. After two successive defeats, the Cards probably will be laying for more of same.

Deer Permits On Sale Here

Deer hunting permits are on sale here at the usual places, it was announced today.

Bow and arrow season on the white tails starts today and runs through December 31. Gun season in Ohio is slated for December 10, 11 and 12.

Officials reminded today that only one deer can be taken for the season, whether it be by bow and arrow or by gun.

As was the case last year, the deer season will be open in all 88 Ohio counties.

Quail season, opening for the first time in Ohio for many years, starts November 16. Nimrods are warned that hunting the birds will be restricted to specified areas.

Tigers Press For Big Test With McClain

A long scrimmage marked Circleville High School grid practice yesterday.

Main objective of the hard work was focused on Greenfield's invasion here for a battle of the undefeateds in South Central Ohio League play.

Greenfield will roll into town with two straight loop wins and a 4-0 mark for the season. The CHS Tigers have won their two SCO starts, tied one and lost one.

Big and fast adequately describes Greenfield, a team loaded with veterans. Circleville is shy on the experience side, is not big, but bridges the gap with good conditioning and a solid gridiron system.

The locals have operated with precision in their last three games and hope to do the same Friday evening.

A vast crowd of fans is expected to be on hand for the important contest. So far the weather outlook appears good, meaning a perfect football night come Friday.

Here are the current SCOL standings.

Stanford Pair Tops Receivers

NEW YORK (AP) — For the first time within memory two players from the same team rank 1-2 among the nation's college pass receivers.

The No. 1 man is Stanford's Chris Burford, who caught two aerials against Washington last week to boost his total to 19 for four games, with a total yardage of 257. His teammate, Ben Robinson, has caught 16 good for 244 yards.

Army's lonely end, Bill Carpenter, also has caught 16, but has carried them four yards less than Robinson.

'Back of Week' Likes Defense

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP) —Surprise: quarterback Richie Lucas of Penn State, the Associated Press Back of the Week, loves to play defense.

And, says Coach Rip Engle, Lucas proved it Saturday in undefeated Penn State's 17-11 victory over Army.

"You usually think of a quarterback as the glamor boy in a football game," Engle said. "But in the Army game, Lucas proved that he can go in there and do the tough, dirty job the same as any other football player."

It was both Lucas' defensive and offensive play against Army that earned him the Back of the Week honors Wednesday. He twice intercepted important passes, made several key tackles, scored two touchdowns, passed for 97 yards and ran for 60.

Trio Is Reappointed To Board of Appeals

'Toothpick' Jones Wins ERA Crown

NEW YORK (AP)—Sam (Toothpick) Jones of the San Francisco Giants, with a hefty assist from the rival Los Angeles Dodgers, edged defending champion Stu Miller to win the 1959 earned run title.

Jones, a 21-game winner, allowed 85 earned runs in 271 innings for an earned run average of 2.82. Miller, Giants' slowball specialist, gave up 53 earned runs in 168 innings for a 2.84 mark, statistics compiled by the Associated Press revealed today.

The best earned run average by far among the regular hurlers was posted by Roger Craig of Los Angeles. He finished with 2.06. The veteran right-hander, however, pitched only 152 2-3 innings, 1 1-3 innings short of the minimum requirement.

The Dodgers' sensational comeback and ultimate 12-inning victory in the final playoff game Sept. 29 cost Craig the ERA crown. If the Dodgers had lost, Craig would have worked the third game and almost certainly picked up the 1 1-3 innings he needed. As it turned out, he started the first game of the World Series against the Chicago White Sox, pitching 2 1-3 innings which do not count in the regular season's records.

Jones, who did a workhorse job as a starter and reliever, pitched four shutouts, including a seven-inning no-hitter against St. Louis in his final start, Sept. 26. Miller had an 8-7 record.

Bob Buhl, Milwaukee, finished third. A 15-game winner, Buhl allowed 63 earned runs in 198 innings for a 2.86 ERA. Warren Spahn of the Braves was fourth with 2.96.

Vern Law, Pittsburgh, and Gene Conley, Philadelphia, tied for fifth at 3.00.

State OKs Knollwood Sewer District, So Does County

The State Department of Health recently approved detailed plans of the proposed sewer and sewage treatment plant for the Knollwood Village sewer district subject to certain conditions.

No approval for the Knollwood sewer district will be given unless the County Commissioners pass and enforce the following regulations satisfactory to the Director of Health, Ralph E. Dwork:

Prohibit the establishment or maintenance of privies, cesspools and private sewage disposal facilities on premises which are accessible to the public sanitary sewers;

Prohibit the discharge into sanitary sewers of roof water, surface or subsoil drainage and other clean waste waters;

Prohibit the discharge of sewage into storm drains;

PROVIDE FOR THE issuance of permits for sewer connections and for their inspection and recording;

The county to provide for proper maintenance of the sewage system;

The county shall provide for technical supervision of the operation of the sewage treatment plant and maintain daily records of its operation to be submitted the State Health Department monthly;

Additional sewage treatment facilities shall be installed when deemed necessary by the state;

That this proposal shall become void on Oct. 1, 1960, unless construction of the proposed sewer system is started before that date.

Tuesday the County Commissioners accepted the state's conditions. Elmer Barrett & Associates, Chillicothe engineering firm, Tuesday submitted detailed plans of the sewer district and estimated assessments for the Knollwood property owners.

Leading Dems Oppose Giving A-Weapons

WASHINGTON (AP) — A proposal that the United States arm its Western European allies with nuclear weapons was opposed today by two influentail Democratic senators.

The proposal was one of several made in a report presented Wednesday to the Senate Foreign Relations Committee by a private study group. The suggestions will be considered by the committee in making its own recommendations next year on the future of U.S. foreign policy.

Senators Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn) and Mike Mansfield (D-Mont) also disagreed with a suggestion that this country send another division of ground troops to Europe as a token of its intent to strengthen NATO defenses.

Humphrey said the report, prepared by the Foreign Policy Research Institute of the University of Pennsylvania, represented "wishful thinking."

Sen. J. William Fulbright (D-Ark), chairman of the committee, previously had commended the report as a "hard-boiled view of the immediate and potential dangers confronted by Western Europe." But he said it did not necessarily reflect members' views.

Humphrey, who heads the Senate Disarmament subcommittee, said, "If we start passing nuclear weapons around, the Russians will be under great pressure to do the same thing. They might even pass them to China and in my opinion that would be a tragic development."

Circle Valley Riding Club at Laurelville Show

The Circle Valley Riding Club of Circleville participated in the street parade at Laurelville last Saturday afternoon.

In the evening, the club held a wiener roast and get-to-gether at the Idle Hour Ranch on Arnhart Hill, Route 56.

Anyone interested in horses, or would like to join a horse enthusiast club is invited to contact the club president, Ronald Eldridge, 112 Fairview Ave. Next regular monthly meeting will be October 25.

Texans Mum On $290,320 Bank Shortage

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Authorities kept mum today about what became of $290,320 they accused a bank official of misapplying.

Federal agents charged James Cook Evans, 52, thin-haired, quiet and mild, in the case Wednesday but refused to disclose many details. He waived preliminary hearing and went free under only $2,500 bond.

The money disappeared in the past two years, investigators said, from the First National Bank in Dallas, one of the city's largest. Evans was an assistant vice president and had worked there since 1925.

Ben H. Wooten, president of the bank, said he understood the shortage involved five other men and a wildcat oil drilling project. No other bank employe had anything to do with the shortage, he said.

The FBI charged Evans specifically with a false entry in bank records crediting a nonexistent $3,000 deposit. Evans had no comment.

"The misapplication came about through the making of fictitious deposits and the paying and concealing of drafts drawn for collection," Wooten said.

Fidelity bonds covered the full amount of the loss, the bank president said.

Other employes discovered a shortage Tuesday when illness kept Evans off the job, and the bank notified the FBI. Evans was fired.

Girl, 15, Tells Of Poisoning Her Parents

OLATHE, Kan. (AP)—The parents of a 15-year-old girl died of poison Wednesday and police said the girl admitted giving them the death-dealing potion under the pretense it was a "thrill powder that would give them a boost."

Sheriff Lynn Thomas quoted the girl, Diane Roberts, as saying her motive was to kill her father because he had threatened to kill her.

William Roberts, 43, the father; and his wife, Evelyn, 42, died in a Kansas City, Mo., hospital about four hours after they became violently ill at their home in Prairie Village, a Kansas City suburb.

Diane was an only child.

No charges were filed immediately.

Sheriff Thomas said the girl told this story:

She bought some roach powder at a drugstore Monday. Tuesday night she mixed the powder in drinking glasses with grape juice, water, flour and sugar.

"I told them it was a thrill powder that would give them a boost."

"They drank some and started laughing real hard. Then she and Dad said 'It is terrible,' and they both got real sick and vomited all over.

"Daddy stood at the bottom of the stairs and screamed — 'God help me, God help me, please take care of me—' then he laid down on the floor."

She said she then called relatives who in turn called a physician.

"I did it because Mom and Dad were always criticizing everything she told Sheriff Thomas.

Toledo OKs Extension Of Life for Its Malls

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—City council voted today to extend the test of four downtown pedestrian malls to Nov. 23 because of the Young Democrats National Convention to be held here Nov. 18-21.

The mall test, previously extended one since the opening last Aug. 3, was to have ended Nov. 16.

Gene Tierney Now Clerking In Dress Shop

TOPEKA, Kan. (AP) — "I was so thrilled I didn't really know what I was buying," said one flustered patron after dealing with a new clerk at a Topeka dress shop.

"She's so nice and patient," said another. "I don't see how she can do it after being a famous actress."

"She" is actress Gene Tierney, star of some 30 movies, former wife of famed dress designer Oleg Cassini and once one of Aly Khan's girl friends.

Miss Tierney, 37, is an outpatient at the Menninger Foundation, a psychiatric center where she spent eight months for treatment of mental illness last year.

She began working in the dress shop about 10 days ago. She personally applied for the job, and the shop manager, D. L. Talmage, said he understood the work is part of her therapy.

Miss Tierney had nothing to say. She wouldn't permit an interview nor pose for photographers. Talmage wouldn't say how much he is paying her and he wouldn't allow newsmen to interview other clerks. The Menninger Clinic never discusses its patients.

County Receives Fairfield's Tax For Teays Valley

The Pickaway County Auditor's office recently received the semi-annual apportionment of taxes from Fairfield County.

The entire amount of the August settlement will go to the Teays Valley School District. Net amount received was $5,832.46.

Real estate taxes amounted to $5,961.99 and trailer taxes totaled $11.22 for total receipts of $5,973.21.

Deductions included $140.75 for Fairfield County Auditor's fees for the $5,832.46 net amount.

The United States bought 20 per cent of Turkey's exports and supplied 18 per cent of her imports during the first seven months of 1959.

Weekly Food Review

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Supermarkets are making a big fuss over feathers and fish this week.

Many are pushing broilers, fryers and Rock Cornish hens as the week's best bargain. Those near the sea are putting extra low price tags on shrimp, scallops and other delicacies from the deep.

Heavy production of chickens has kept prices down for some time.

Rock Cornish hens, once in the luxury class, have been brought down to the bargain level with increasing frequency in recent years.

Supplies of shrimp and scallops are seasonally heavy, which accounts for their emphasis. Halibut, haddock and swordfish also are featured in some places.

Bacon is the No. 1 attraction in some places, heading a list of pork buys including loins, chops and canned hams. Steak is marked down 3 to 6 cents in a few areas, while rib roast also is lower by 4 to 10 cents a pound, but only in scattered sections.

Bargains among vegetables are headed by potatoes and onions, although both staples edged a shade higher this week.

Other outstanding bargains include sweet potatoes, spinach, cooking greens, butternut or acorn squash and endive and escarole for salad lovers. You can get good buys, too, among snap beans, cauliflower, cucumbers, green onions, radishes, broccoli and all types of cabbage.

Recognizing the glut of apples, especially from Eastern growing areas, the Department of Agriculture has designated today as the start of National Apple Week. McIntosh, Jonathan and Stayman varities are especially cheap among the numerous bargain varieties.

Limes, bananas and pears also are rated as outstanding fruit bargains.

Ohio Hospital Care Pay Cut Hinted

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The State Welfare Department will cut its hospital care payments for aged patients to a fractional formula Nov. 1, unless hospitals of physicians come up with a better idea.

Mrs. Mary Gorman, state welfare director, said the new formula will go into effect the day before new aid-for-aged legislation goes into effect.

The state, she said, will pay full per diem hospital rates only for the first 10 days for aged payments. For the next 10 days, it will pay 75 per cent of per diem costs and for the succeeding hospitalization period, 50 per cent.

Mexican Street Car Mishap Is Fatal to 2

MEXICO CITY (AP)—A streetcar on the way to the barn Tuesday hit a car, jumped the tracks and crashed into a power line post. The motorman, alone in the streetcar, was killed. An ambulance attendant stepped on a wire cut by the crash and was electrocuted. The driver of the car was injured only slightly.

Steel Strike Settlement This Week Said Possible

HALE (AND HEARTY) TO THE CHIEF — President Eisenhower, his coat collar turned up, looks through the rain-splattered window of his limousine after arriving in Washington from Abilene, Kan. In Abilene, the president celebrated his 69th birthday at a quiet family dinner.

One Innocent, Two Guilty Pleas Heard by Local Court

Two persons pleaded guilty and one person entered a plea of innocent at arraignments held in Pickaway County Common Pleas Court today.

Kay Roger Lowery, 18, Lowery Lane, pleaded guilty to charges of rape. William LaGrow, 111 Water St., pleaded guilty to a charge of failure to provide for minor children.

John M. Thomas, 153 Huston St., pleaded innocent to a charge of driving a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicants (OMVI). He was released under continuance of his $200 bond.

Lowery, charged with the rape of a 13-year-old Williamsport girl, was committed to the Lima State Hospital for observation, as required by law.

LAGROW was placed on probation for three years and ordered to pay $27 support money weekly to his wife and three children. He also was instructed to refrain from inhabiting places that sold intoxicating liquors.

John Lesley Teets, 47, Route 1, Mt. Sterling, will not be arraigned until the court appoints him an attorney. After consulting his attorney, Teets will enter a plea.

He is charged with second degree murder for the shotgun slaying of his wife, Frances, on September 6. He was bound to the County Grand Jury for first degree murder without bond.

The September term of the Grand Jury, which met Friday, indicted Teets for second degree murder, reducing the original charge.

Estell Grayson, indicted for carrying a concealed .22 caliber revolver, failed to appear due to a mixup in dates for his arraignment.

His arraignment was rescheduled for 9:30 a. m. Tuesday. Charles A. Graham, 306 Northridge Road, did not appear. He was indicted for OMVI.

Newspaper Week Hailed By President

WASHINGTON (AP)—Zeal and accuracy in the nation's newspapers are needed to "make history move steadily forward in the direction of freedom and justice," President Eisenhower says.

In a statement issued for the 20th annual observance of National Newspaper Week, which begins today, the President said: "Your newspaper—freedom's textbook" is a "fine theme for this year's observance. To me, it stands for the hopes and achievements of American journalism.

"As our editors report the daily affairs of their communities with zeal and accuracy, they help to supply our citizens with the lessons of history, together with the information which is required to make history move steadily forward in the direction of freedom and justice.

"I am delighted to add my best wishes for the success of National Newspaper Week."

Dayton Rubber Co. Rapped by Agency

WASHINGTON (AP)—Price discrimination charges were brought by the Federal Trade Commission today against the Dayton Rubber Co., Dayton, Ohio.

The FTC said Dayton gave illegal price concessions, up to 25 per cent, to favored wholesale purchasers of its fan belts, radiator hoses and other automotive products.

The firm also was accused of requiring customers to enter into agreements which allegedly have restrained prices and thwarted competition.

The FTC said dealers must agree to resell the product at prices fixed by Dayton and in some cases are told what customers they may deal with. The company has 30 days in which to answer the complaint.

Errol Flynn Dies Laughing

Faulty Heart Blamed For Actor's Death

VANCOUVER, B.C. (AP) — Errol Flynn, whose real-life adventures often outdid his swashbuckling movie roles, died Wednesday night in an apartment where he had dropped in for a drink. He apparently suffered a heart attack.

"He died laughing," said Mrs. George Caldough, Flynn's hostess during a visit here. "He was having a good time and enjoying himself."

The graying, 50-year-old actor was en route to the airport with Mr. and Mrs. Caldough and his 17-year-old protege Beverly Aadland.

"We just dropped in to see some friends for a cocktail," Mrs. Caldough said.

She said Flynn complained of a pain in the back and Dr. Grant Gould, whom they were visiting, took him into another room. Flynn lost consciousness while the doctor was absent from the room for a moment, she said.

An inhalator crew worked over Flynn for 57 minutes and then he was taken by ambulance to a hospital, where he was pronounced dead on arrival.

Miss Aadland, who rode to the hospital in the ambulance, was placed under sedation.

"Women," said Flynn on his arrival here six days ago, "well, that speaks for itself. I like young women because they give you a feeling of youth."

He came to negotiate for the sale of his $100,000 yacht Zaca. Caldough reportedly was interested in the luxury vessel.

Flynn's dashing manner both on and off the screen raised the blood pressure of feminine admirers and male rivals. It also brought him headlines — headlines he said he wanted to avoid.

"The search for anonymity has been my true failure," he maintained.

The actor was married three times. He was separated from his current wife Patrice Wymore, who is appearing at a Washington, D.C., night club.

CHS-McClain Test Promises Large Crowd

Circleville High School is expecting its largest football crowd in several years when Greenfield McClain invades here Friday night.

According to Greenfield school officials, approximately 1,000 McClain fans are expected to travel here for the vital South Central Ohio League test. Both teams are undefeated in loop play.

CHS officials today said additional bleacher sections will be erected to handle the expected overflow crowd. The school has requested four policemen and six auxiliary deputy sheriffs to direct traffic and keep order.

Tickets will be on sale as usual at the gate. Kickoff time is set for 8 p. m., following a special ceremony slated by the Circleville Booster Club.

Vigilante Defendant Is Freed

CHELSEA, Vt. (AP)—Robert O. Welch of Newbury was acquitted of murder today by a directed verdict which ended Vermont's vigilante trial.

Judge Natt L. Divoll Jr. told the jury he and the two side judges, who, under Vermont law, sit with the court, had concluded unanimously the case should be ended at this point after defense had rested without calling a witness.

Judge Divoll explained to the jurors that the court first denied a defense motion for a directed verdict but decided to order one on a renewed motion filed after defense counsel Henry Black announced he would present no testimony.

Welch, 46, a school janitor, was indicted along with Frank W. Carpenter, 43, for the slaying of Orville A. Gibson, 47, prosperous Newbury dairy farmer.

Carpenter was not on trial with Welch. He is scheduled for a separate trial.

The state charged in court that Welch was one of a group of Newbury men who set on a vigilante action to punish Gibson for beating his farmhand, Eri Martin, 57, for spilling two cans of milk.

'58 Cigarette Output Would Reach to Moon

WASHINGTON (AP) — Enough cigarettes were produced last year to make a carpet seven feet wide and one cigarette thick from the earth to the moon, the Agriculture Department reported today.

To reach the moon at its closest point to the earth, the cigarette carpet would have to extend 221,900 miles.

The world output was 1,971 billion cigarettes—470 billion of them American. That was an increase of 4½ per cent over 1957 for the world total.

Girl Is Locked In Room 2 Years

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — A 7-year-old Phoenix girl, suffering from severe malnutrition, was in the county hospital today after spending the last two years locked in a small bedroom.

Bonnie Marie Shelton weighed only 28 pounds. Doctors said she should weigh about 55 pounds.

Her mother, Ruth Shelton, 31, arrested on a tip from a relative, was charged with contributing to the delinquency of a minor. Officers indicated additional charges may be filed later.

Juvenile officer Philip Morgan said Mrs. Shelton admitted keeping her daughter locked in the bedroom. He quoted her as saying the child suffered from a glandular disorder "and would eat all the food in the house if I let her."

U.N. Fact-Finder Denies Chinese General Tale

TOKYO (AP) — A member of the U.N. fact-finding team on Laos expressed astonishment today at a report the group had received evidence Red China's former commander in Korea is masterminding the rebellion in Laos.

"I've never heard of it," said Brig. Gen. Heriberto Ahrens of Argentina. "This is the first time I've heard it. I'm really astonished."

Van Doren Tells Of His 'Distress'

NEW YORK (AP)—"I really did not know of the great interest you had in me until yesterday — and here I am today which is as soon as it was humanly possible for me to meet with you."

It was Charles Van Doren speaking. The 33-year-old English instructor appeared in public Wednesday to accept a subpoena to testify Nov. 2 before a House subcommittee.

The subcommittee has heard testimony that NBC's now defunct Twenty-One show, the program on which Van Doren scored heavily, was rigged.

The subpoena, issued last Friday, summons Van Doren to tell how he won $129,000 on 14 appearances in 1956-57.

At a tumultuous news conference, Van Doren said he "was so distressed by the events of the previous days" that he took a week's leave from his teaching post at Columbia University and land "to gather my thoughts."

Van Doren, reading from a hand-written statement on yellow paper, apologized for what he called "my apparent aversion" to the press for the last several days.

But he refused to discuss his quiz show earnings in advance of his scheduled appearance in Washington.

Rep. Oren Harris (D-Ark), chairman of the investigation, had charged Van Doren with dodging the subpoena.

But Van Doren said in his statement that the first he knew of the order was Monday night and that he then made himself available.

He said he was distressed last week when NBC suspended him as a $50,000-a-year network consultant pending the outcome of the investigation. He got the job after his TV appearances.

In testimony before a New York County grand jury last year Van Doren denied getting help while a contestant. He repeated this later by telegram to the Washington subcommittee.

However, he declined to reaffirm these statements.

The committee also plans to hear testimony about CBS's $64,000 Question, first of the big-money quiz programs.

A statement by counsel Robert W. Lishman in Washington that the subcommittee has information that the show was rigged brought a flood of statements from former participants on that program and a companion show, the $64,000 Challenge.

Among defenders of the first show were former contestants Tom Kane of Buffalo, N.Y., and Myrt Power of Buford, Ga.

Kane said, "To my knowledge the shows I appeared on were absolutely beyond reproach." Mrs. Power said, "If somebody had been giving out the answers I wouldn't have stopped at $32,000."

2 Yanks Win Nobel Prizes

Medical Research Brings Top Honors

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP)—Two American scientists were awarded this year's Nobel prize in medicine for pioneer research into the basic mechanisms of heredity.

They are Dr. Severo Ochoa of the New York University college of medicine and Dr. Arthur Kornberg of Stanford University, California.

The decision was taken by the Swedish Royal Caroline Institute of Medicine and Physiology this afternoon.

The reward signaled an explosive biochemical advance in the basic scientific level of heredity.

The prize this year is worth 220,700 Swedish crowns—$42,606. The money comes from trusts set up under the will of Alfred Nobel, Swedish inventor of dynamite. The prizes first were awarded in 1901 and are given for chemistry, physics, literature, as well as in the field of medicine and physiology. In addition there is the Nobel Peace Prize.

Americans also won the prize for medicine last year. They were George Beadle, Edward Tatum and Joshua Lederberg, for their work in genetics.

The work of Dr. Ochoa and Dr. Kornberg centered on the chemical structural pattern of heredity, notably the key substances of DNA — DesoxyriboNucleic Acid; and RNA—RiboNucleic Acid.

The Caroline Institute said in its official citation that the two American scientists were awarded the prize "for their discoveries of the mechanisms in the biological synthesis of RiboNucleic Acid and DesoxyriboNucleic Acid."

Dr. Ochoa, 54, is a native of Luarca, Spain.

Ohio Idle Total Continues Climb

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Unemployment in Ohio continued to inch upward last week, the Bureau of Unemployment Compensation reported today.

It was a continuation of the trend which began two weeks ago, apparently a side effect of the long steel strike. Until the week which ended Oct. 3, there had been a steady decline for many months in the number of Ohioans collecting BUC benefits.

The low point of 43,452 was reached in the week ended Sept. 26. As of last Saturday, however, the total had risen to 46,343, the BUC reported.

The total of new claims filed last week was 13,814, a considerable jump above the 7,800 new claims filed three weeks earlier.

Driving in City Can Cause Lung Cancer, Doctor Finds

CINCINNATI (AP) — Cigarette smoking is "the primary excitant of lung cancer," Dr. Clarence A. Mills reported today—but he added that in the course of a survey he found the "lung cancer hazard to smokers to be more than doubled "if they drive more than 1,000 miles a month in urban traffic."

Dr. Mills, professor of experimental medicine at the University of Cincinnati's College of Medicine, has just completed bringing up to date a 1955 survey of lung cancer among men in Cincinnati's urban and suburban areas.

Dr. Mills has achieved world renown through pioneering studies on effects of climate on society and still earlier work on pellagra.

"Lung cancer rates are now found to be roughly 50 per cent higher since the beginning of 1956 than in the nine preceding years," he reported. "They are in even closer association with the three major pollution factors: Cigarette smoking, general air pollution and liquid-fuel motor exhaust gases."

Dr. Mills found that although lung cancer incidence among smokers more than doubled if they drove more than 12,000 miles a year in urban traffic, "there was no such effect from even greater driving mileages by country men on the more open country highways."

Dr. Mills predicted that "this association of heightened lung cancer hazards to high urban driving mileages . . . will almost certainly become more emphatic as motor traffic density worsens and human exposure to its hazards lengthens through coming decades.

"The need for legislative action to halt this increasing health menace seems clear and unambiguous," he said, adding:

"The most effective handling of this health problem would seem to include, first, the establishment by the medical profession of safe standards beyond which pollution of urban atmosphere should not be allowed to go, and, second, the translation of these maximum allowable limits into local, state, and federal legislation limiting the output at source of the primary polluting factors. . . ."

Fact-Finding Chief Shies at Any Injunction

Inquiry Panel Given Time Extension for Report to President

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government's chief fact finder said today he is "not without hope" for a settlement of the steel strike that will avert use of a Taf-Hartley law injunction.

George W. Taylor, chairman of President Eisenhower's steel inquiry board, made that comment to a reporter as industry representatives resumed presenting their side of the deadlocked labor dispute to Taylor's three-man panel.

In effect, Taylor was saying he thought it possible a settlement could be reached this weekend.

At the same time, Taylor urged industry and union to resume direct negotiations. Both sides seemed to accept the suggestion but no immediate bargaining was scheduled.

The nation wants a settlement soon of the damaging strike, Taylor lectured both sides.

He said that if they are unable to reach agreement by negotiation, they should consider submitting their differences to arbitration, or a decision by outside neutrals.

R. Conrad Cooper, U.S. Steel Corp. executive, and Union President David J. McDonald replied that they preferred negotiations rather than arbitration.

Taylor said there are two main road blocks thwarting a settlement.

He said these are the work rule changes demanded by the industry, designed to promote operating economy, and the matter of wage and benefit increases for the strikers.

Taylor said he sympathized with the company position that neither the steel industry nor the country wanted a settlement that would touch off a new round of inflation. But he said he questioned that the industry's limit of a 2 per cent increase for the workers was a "magic figure" or a necessarily correct measurement of what could be given that would be noninflationary.

Both sides, the panel chairman said, had room to compromise toward a settlement.

As to the inflation issue, Taylor remarked that a continuing steel strike also would promote some inflation through its impact on the federal budget, through lower tax yields and in various other ways.

The panel is to make a report to Eisenhower on Monday. Once it reports, the way will be cleared for the government to turn to the courts and ask for an order directing that the 500,000 striking workers go back to work for an 80-day cooling off period.

Such orders are authorized by the Taft-Hartley law.

Eisenhower granted the panel an extra three days for its work—moving the deadline, for the board to submit a report to the White House, from Friday to Monday.

The panel conferred separately with the industry and union Wednesday night. Taylor was expected to announce a summary of the strike issues—the areas that need to be resolved before any agreement can be reached—at the close of formal hearings today.

The striking Steelworkers Union concluded its version of the strike issues late Tuesday.

Today was the 93rd day of the strike—the longest in the industry's history.

As industry management continued to give the panel its side of the dispute, H. C. Lumb, representing Republic Steel Corp., discussed proposals for tighter contract provisions against wildcat strikes.

Lumb conceded at the outset that the international officers of the Steelworkers Union have been responsive and tended to cooperate in the past in quelling sudden, unauthorized strikes while labor contracts were in force. But he said that this has come after the damage has been done.

There is a measure of agreement on the issue of wildcat strikes, Lumb said, but there is disagreement over how to make contract terms applying to them

Community Fund Tops 70 Per Cent

The Pickaway County Community Fund campaign stood at 70 per cent of the $30,000 goal today with more gifts due at headquarters before the week is out.

A total of $21,331 has been turned in at headquarters in the American Hotel. That leaves $8,669 still to be collected if the goal to be topped.

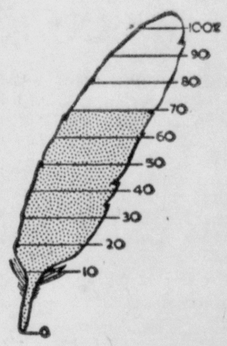
The Pickaway County Community Fund supports the Red Cross, Youth Canteen, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and Salvation Army. Without Community Fund donations these agencies will have to curtail their services to the whole county next year.

Fund officials today urged solicitors to complete their calls and turn in their gifts to headquarters before the weekend. They asked that the work be completed before Pumpkin Show which starts Wednesday.

It is known that some solicitors have made their calls but have not reported to headquarters. It is also known that some persons have not been contacted by Community are urged. In the event a volunteer worker has not called upon any resident of Pickaway County the resident is asked to call fund headquarters GR 4-3012 and a call will be made.

Headquarters in the American Hotel is open from 1-5 p. m. and 6-8 p. m. each day this week and until 5 p. m. Saturday.

SECOND CALLS by solicitors



Fund volunteers since they were not at home when the call was made.

U.S. To Offer Own Arms Plan

Proposal To Rival Khrushchev's Idea

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —Word circulated today that the United States will present a rival arms plan when Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's total disarmament proposal goes before the 10-nation East-West committee in Geneva.

Sources close to the U.S. delegation to the U.N. said American disarmament experts are working quietly with the State Department on a plan covering the whole arms question as well as the thorny problem of adequate controls.

U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge hinted some such move was afoot when he spoke in the disarmament debate before the U.N. Assembly's main Political Committee Wednesday.

Lodge noted that President Eisenhower has set in motion a concentrated disarmament review which will prepare the United States to participate "constructively" in the Geneva talks, slated to open after the Assembly ends.

Informants stressed that the United States will not present any arms plan before the General Assembly this session but will wait for the Geneva parley.

Lodge told the Assembly that some agency such as an international police force would be necessary to preserve peace after disarmament. He recommended that the U.N. Disarmament Commission try to decide what type of force would be needed and what principles of international law should govern it.

Woman, 45, Can See Now, Thanks to Boy

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP)—What is it like to see again after being nearly blind for 42 years?

"It's like a bright streak of lightning. It's all so new."

The words were those of Mrs. Duane Vincent, 45, whose eyesight may have been restored through the thoughtfulness of a young boy.

Mrs. Vincent underwent a corneal transplant two weeks ago. Doctors say it may be several months yet before it is known whether the operation is a complete success.

The corneas were from the eyes of Bobby Jenness, 12, who died Sept. 30 in a traffic mishap. He, and other members of his family, had willed their eyes to an eyebank only three months before Bobby was killed.

Mrs. Vincent left the hospital Wednesday. Her first wish was to see Bobby's mother Mrs. William S. Jenness.

The two women embraced emotionally, then traveled to Mrs. Vincent's home together where they spent some time talking, mostly about Bobby.

Although doctors cautioned that it will be months yet before they pletely restored, Mrs. Vincent can be sure her eyesight is com- said she can tell the difference already.

It Is Merely Point of View

CINCINNATI (AP) — A woman entering the basement of a church here Wednesday night to attend a rummage sale encountered another woman rushing out, holding her coat around her.

"What's the matter, no bargains?" asked Mrs. Charles Khoury.

"No bargains," answered the other woman.

Three purses containing a total of $51 were stolen during the sale.

Mrs. Khury told police the woman apparently was carrying something under her coat.

Verdict Favors Railroad in Howell Case

Nearly 10 years of legal battles and technicalities came to an abrupt end for Fred Howell yesterday when a Pickaway County Common Pleas Court petit jury returned a verdict in favor of the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway Co.

The civil case petit jury deliberated one hour and 10 minutes after being presented the case at approximately 3:15 p. m. yesterday.

Howell, 101 Reber Ave., was suing the C&O for $31,888 as a result of his wife's death on Aug. 30, 1949, more than 10 years ago.

Mrs. Howell was killed when the automobile she was driving was struck by a northbound C&O train at a private crossing on the Frank Bowling farm south of here.

* * *

FINAL ARGUMENTS were presented yesterday afternoon after the C&O's legal counsel presented no witnesses.

Presiding Judge William Ammer gave the jury a 38-minute general charge, with 10 special instructions and two special findings of facts.

Judge Ammer said this was one of his most difficult cases to hear due to the many legal technicalities involved.

Howell's suit charged the C&O with negligence in allowing weeds and bushes to grow near the crossing, obstructing the deceased's vision.

The suit also charged the C&O's train engineer was negligent in his failure to blow his whistle or bell as he neared the crossing.

Harrison Smith Jr., member of the Columbus law firm of Wilson and Rector, representing the C&O, countered Howell's suit by stating that the plaintiff failed to prove necessity of damages, that testimony showed no negligence on the part of the C&O, and that Mrs. Howell was guilty of contributory negligence.

* * *

COURT OFFICIALS agreed that state laws on the responsibility of persons crossing railroad tracks was explicit and favored the railroads in most respects.

MORE . MORE . MORE . MORE

Judge Ammer earlier had overruled Smith's request for a directed verdict in favor of the defendant.

Richard W. Penn, local attorney at 114½ N. Court St., assisted Smith in the case as did C&O Agent Shini.

Members of the petit jury were: Berlin Noble, 452 Stella Ave., foreman; Kenneth Reid, Route 1, Williamsport; Mrs. Marie E. McGhee, Route 2, Williamsport; Aulton E. Carter, Williamsport; Mrs. John M. Yunker, Knollwood Village; Mrs. George A. Fissell, 705 N. Pickaway St.;

MRS. WILSON M. WOOD, 117 Dunmore Road; John J. Seibel, Route 1, Mt. Sterling; John S. Caldwell, Route 3; Mrs. Dorothy Ward, Ashville;

William G. Koch, Route 2, and Lewis J. Holderman, 609 N. Court St. Mrs. Leo McClure, Route 3, was the 13th juror and was dismissed when the jury went into session.

The jury verdict was nine for the defendant and three against. Those voting against the C&O were Mrs. McGhee, Caldwell and Holderman.

Man Appears On Old Charge Of Burglary

The Pickaway County Common Pleas Court today placed Billy Joe VanSickle on three years probation.

VanSickle was indicted by the October, 1955 County Grand Jury for breaking and entering an uninhabited dwelling during the night season and grand larceny.

He was accused of breaking and entering Bowdle's Sinclair Service Station on Aug. 13, 1955.

VanSickle was charged with stealing personal property valued at $100 from the service station.

* * *

HE WAS APPREHENDED by Columbus Police on Aug. 25, 1955 or burglary. Franklin County Common Pleas Court tried and convicted VanSickle on this charge.

He was sentenced Oct. 5, 1955 to the Ohio State Penitentiary, Columbus, for 1 to 15 years at hard labor. He recently was released and brought here.

VanSickle pleaded guilty to both counts and Judge Guy G. Cline deferred imposition of sentence and placed him on probation.

Judge Cline took into account VanSickle's past imprisonment of four years. Judge Cline sat in for Judge William Ammer who requested the move since he had prosecuted VanSickle in 1955 when he was County Prosecutor.

VanSickle, on Sept. 12, 1958, asked for acquittal on both charges because more than two terms of the County Grand Jury had passed and he hadn't been brought to trial.

Judge Cline refused to dismiss the charges, stating that previous court rulings had held that this law does not apply to persons confined in prisons.

effective. What the industry proposes, he said, is to provide a deterrent, and place responsibility on local unions for unauthorized strikes in their jurisdictions.

In addition, Lumb said, the industry wants to make it clear that any employe participating in a wildcat strike is subject to discharge as well as to automatic, stiff money penalties. But he said the steel companies are willing to drop the proposals for financial penalties if they get the firing feature.

John Morse, Bethlehem Steel lawyer, told the fact finders that to meet sudden changes in orders the steel companies need a contract provision entitling them to change work schedules for their employes without penalty.

Morse also said steel companies need greater latitude in scheduling employe vacations.

Industry representatives have been pounding on the theme that economies must be effected; that union demands confront the nation with the question whether to "accept another inflationary wage increase in steel, or to go without steel."

College Becomes More Costly

Many parents are awakening to the high cost of higher education, and according to the Ford Foundation they are probably receiving a jolt back to reality which may jeopardize college graduation for their offspring.

The foundation financed a survey of 5,000 American families to ascertain what planning was being done toward college educations for American youths, and general family attitudes toward the subject. Results of the survey indicated an almost total ignorance of college costs and an equally disturbing lack of any plan for saving toward higher education.

Despite the fact that two-thirds of the parents questioned expect to send their children to college, 60 per cent of them have yet to put one dollar in a savings fund for this purpose. Among the remainder the average savings amount to only $150 a year.

This same survey found the student cost per year, on the average, for private schools, $1,574; for state colleges, $1,370; for junior colleges, $988, and for city colleges, $861. This is a range of $4,000 to $6,300 for four years of college and would take a minimum of 27 years to accumulate at an average of $150 a year. It is not surprising that many able students never go to college (only one of four goes beyond high school), and that many others leave college for lack of money.

Many of those who said they wanted their children to go on with their education offered puny excuses for not preparing themselves financially for what has become an expensive necessity. Many offered no excuse at all, but simply hadn't thought about it. Others expected their children to pay the bills themselves. Almost one-third expected to pay from current income.

Those who find themselves in the latter category will save many heartaches by familiarizing themselves with the cost of modern education. It is no longer possible to send a son or daughter through college by cutting down on cigars or postponing buying a new car for several years. A college education has become one of the more costly purchases, but it is an investment which becomes more valuable every year.

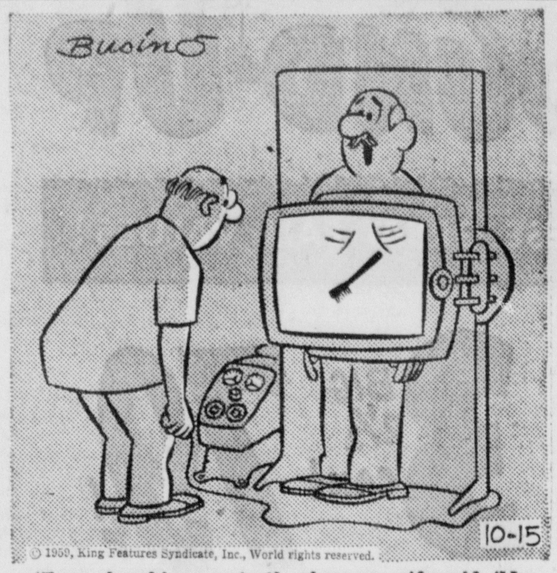
LAFF-A-DAY



"I was brushing my teeth when my wife said, 'Mr. Helfer of the Internal Revenue to see you, dear.'"

The World Today

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
Assciated Press News Analyst

Natural calamities and other factors have combined to create a critical food situation in Red China. The Peiping government is instituting measures which have the look of rigid food rationing.

This information is gleaned from the official newspaper of the Chinese Communist party, the People's Daily. It has just announced details of what the party calls a "plan for food consumption and economizing in food consumptin."

While the party paper insists the food outlook in China is favorable, it acknowledges that it has undertaken a "shock publicity campaign" to cut down excessive consumption. Party members have undertaken to "explain the truth to the masses."

"They have raised the consciousness of the masses and extensively disseminated throughout all households the call of the party for the practice of economy in food consumption," the paper says. "Many refectories (public dining halls) and families have taken the initiative to draft their plans to economize in food consumption.

"Economy in food has thus become the social fashion. In preparing meals they have blended course and fine food grains, adjusted the cooking of food grains for both thin and thick mixtures, distinguished between greater and lesser consumption of meals, and rationed consumption according to the number of persons."

The party has directed that after the autumn harvest, these measures must be adopted in all areas.

The party blames its food woes in part on the number of natural disasters — floods and droughts — which ravaged many areas in Red China during the summer. But there are other factors.

One of the most important of these must be the shift of populations from rural areas to the cities in the intensive drive of the Red Chinese to industrialize at breakneck speed.

It is also more than possible that the commune system forced upon the farm communities has further interfered with farm production. There has been much reason to suppose that the regimentation of the Chinese farmers has met with serious resistance.

So the Communist party is faced with this situation: The autumn harvest probably will mean a barely adequate supply of food for the fall and winter months, but there is little reserve to fall back upon next spring and summer, when the food situation can become so troublesome as to deserve the term crisis.

Overweight Is Too Common

By Herman N. Bundesen, M.D.

What abnormality is most frequently found among our general population?

You don't have to be a quiz expert to answer this one. Obviously, it's the overweight problem.

Records seem to indicate that about 720 million patients visited doctors' offices last year. Of that number, some 12 million sought treatment for obesity!

And this still is a small percentage of the persons who do need help with their overweight problems. It is estimated h tat between 36 million and 50 million Americans are too fat for t h e i r own good.

Strangely, athough nearly twice as many men as women are overweight, as a rule the women are the ones who do something about reducing.

Of the 12 million stout persons who asked their doctors for help last year, 82 per cent of them were women.

Now let me ask a rather personal question: Are you one of the 50 million persons who should reduce?

I've given you some tips in the past on how to tell whether you are overweight. Let me pass along one more method. It's called the ruler test.

First, lie perfectly flat on a bed or the floor. Relax.

Then place a foot-long ruler on your a b d o m e n with one end between the flare of your ribs.

If your abdomen is normal, the ruler will lie flat. But if it points upwards and away from your ribs, you, in all likelihood, are fat.

Of course, other factors such as gas, accumulation of fluid, enlarged organs, tumors or pregnacy also can cause the ruler to tilt upward.

But your problem, I dare say, probably is merely too m u c h weight.

Why are your overweight?

It's not simply because you eat too much. It goes far beyond that. In fact, just about all of our cherished modern conveniences figure in the picture.

I'll tell you all about it in another column soon.

Question and Answer

Frequent Reader: I have had burning sensations on my head, mostly on the back of my head and just above the ears.

Do you think this is the result of an accident I had about three months ago when I ran into a clothesline which caught me right between the eyes and burned terribly at the time?

Answer: The burning sensation in the head could be due to the accident you describe but may be the result of other conditions.

Let your doctor decide.

It is estimated Americans consumed 32 billion bottles of soft drinks in 1958, or 184 bottles per person.

Cinderella Story, Part II

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—Cinderella's real life story, as it might be told by a modern literary ghost:

"And so they l i v e d happily ever!" So ends the fairy tale, after I married the prince who found only my foot would fit the glass slipper.

Actually, it was only afterward that I learned what real unhappiness was. Before that I had been only a young, dreaming girl. marriage turned me into a woman.

No one knows how many broken hearts weep in palaces. My life with the prince became a living hell.

To begin with, I didn't know my way around a palace. The courtiers, jealous of my sudden rise, laughed at my untutored accent. They jeered when I tried to eat raw oysters with a spoon. But court etiquette?

I began to feel blue all the time. The prince was no help. He was no man, but a weak foolish boy.

It broke my heart when I found out he was making love to half the chambermaids in the palace. After that I ceased to care.

Success is very lonely, particularly if it comes too fast. I found out nobody loved me for myself. They all had their hands out.

My old friends sponged on me. So did my old enemies.

My mother-in-law, the queen, turned against me, too.

I grew more lonely. I found champagne made me feel better, but soon the old bubbly wasn't strong enough.

From the bottle I went on to the needle.

Thanks to the psychiatrist's couch and two trips to the federal hospital at Lexington, Ky., I've kicked the habit.

Next week my divorce from the prince is final.

What lies ahead? Well, the king —my ex-father-in-law, wants to shed his wife and make me the new queen.

It is the kind of marriage that makes sense. The king is an older man, a father symbol who can give me the emotional security I crave. And I can give him the understanding he needs from a young and ardent heart.

Why Did Khrushchev Visit?

By George Sokolsky

By now we ought to know why it was so pressing upon Nikita Khrushchev to come to the United States. The visit was unusual.

If he came to discuss affairs of state with President Eisenhower, why was it necessary for him to traipse about this country exhibiting himself before his conversations with the President at Camp David?

If he came here to learn about the United States, why did he reject every opportunity afforded him to absorb knowledge?

If he came to make peace, why did his associate, Red China, start warlike operations in India?

If he came to project himself as a friendly person, why did he insult every person he met privately or on special occasions?

If he acme to project himself course, why was every proposal so couched as to be impossible of acceptance?

In a study of "The R i s e of Khrushchev" by Myron Rush of the Rand Corporation, written before Khrushchev's visit to the United States, this is said:

"In ruling Russia Khrushchev faces grave political problems, just as Stalin did in 1930 after he had conquered his opposition. The Soviet people demand a better life for their hard labors over long years. Intellectuals and students seek greater freedom of expression for themselves and higher living standards for the people. Economic managers are restive under the party's increasing pressures and long for the rationalization of economic life.

"In the satellite states the people seek national expression and improved living standards. Nuclear weapons, the over-arching political question of the age, present the Khrushchev regime, no less than Western leaders, with awful problems. For their solution political imagination, no less than Khrushchev's evident daring and initiative, is required."

Cound this have been the reason for Khrushchev's visit? Was the Cold War pressing him too tightly? His speeches here were those of a desperate man who continued to s h o u t, "I ain't afraid of you. I want to be your friend but I ain't afraid of you."

So he arrived accompanied by a rocket that hit the moon. Must we lie down and die? So he congratulated himself on Russia's enormous achievements and that he will pass us by in six or seven years. Walter Reuther hit him hard with good, workingman arguments and all that Reuther got for his pains were personal insults; David Sarnoff told him off and was called the capitalist Minsk with distinct anti-Semitic overtones.

The picture of this visit cannot be composed. There are too many false notes. Nothing can be put together. Yet, it is impossible to believe that there was not a well-considered purpose in this visit.

The British and some others believe that Khrushchev is beginning to be scared by the Red Chinese; that he is forced willynilly to make overtures to the West lest he be caught in a pincers between the West and the Red Chinese.

It seems to me that it is too early for that. Before Red China can risk moving into Siberia, Russian Turkestan and Afghanistan, it will have to reduce India to a fief. An unfriendly India, Burma, Malaya, can vitiate any advantages of the conquest of Tibet and the effort to fill out the Chien Lung line in South East Asia. Mao Tze-tung has not the power, if unassisted by Soviet Russia, to hold the vast area of more than 4,000,000 square miles.

Whereas Mao's Communism is very different f r o m Khrushchev's, Mao being an orthodox Marxist, nevertheless Red China must remain an ally if not a vassal of Soviet Russia for a prolonged period. To bank on a split between M o s c o w and Peking seems to me premature.

However, it is obvious that Khrushchev failed in convincing Mao that a truce to all military activity is necessary even if the immediate objective be only to narcotize the United States.

Mao is not in a position to accept such a program. For if he ceases hammering upon the one tune, h a t r e d for the United States, he may lose his people altogether. He must sing that song every day. He must appear warlike, the conqueror, the master of Asia For hs rules one of the most warlike peoples on Earth.

I once calculated that in 1,000 years of Chinese history, I could not find 100 years of peace. Maybe this is an exaggeration but it is not far from the truth. And Mao is acting accordingly.

Most of the coal supply of the United States comes from underground mines. The r e s t comes from the surface where soil, rock and coal are l i f t e d by power shovels.

Dear Abby...

By Abigail VanBuren

He's Respectable, but Sick

DEAR ABBY: We have had a "Peeping Tom" reported in our neighborhood twice in the past year. Nobody could catch him.

Last night to my amazement, I saw a neighbor of ours prowling around my back yard. Then he climbed up on another neighbor's upstairs porch and just sat there looking in her window while she undressed. My heart was beating sixty miles an hour. I called my husband. He said for us to keep quiet because this man is a well-to-do, respected businessman in town. He is married and has a nice family, too. I think he should be reported but my husband forbids me to get mixed up in it. Can you advise me?

SAW HIM MYSELF

DEAR SAW: No healthy-minded man believes like your neighbor. Even though he has enjoyed a respectable reputation, there is every indication that he is sick. You will do him, his family, and your community a big favor if you promptly report him to the police.

DEAR ABBY: I have a mad crush on my Science teacher. I am 16 and he is around 32 or 33. He is married so there is no hope for me, but I can't stop feeling the way I do about him.

At the beginning of the semester he was very nice to me, but I did some very stupid things, and I mean stupid. Now he ignores me.

The most stupid thing I did was trying to take his picture in class. He sent me out of the room for that. How can I get him to like me?

LITTLE GIRL BLUE

DEAR LITTLE: Your attentions to this teacher have obviously been a source of embarrassment to him. You are underdeveloped (emotionally) and the poor teacher is overexposed (to sweet young things). Get the situation in focus and accept the inevitable negative.

DEAR ABBY: My wife came from a broken home. She told me that she wanted to be absolutely certain that we didn't let that happen to our children. I admired her attitude. But, Abby, how long would you give a wife to "test" a marriage?

We have been married 14 years and she is still waiting to see if our marriage will "last."

I am 43 and my wife is 39, and she is still "not sure." I am getting very disgusted with her. Can you help with a few words in... your column?

WANTS A FAMILY

DEAR WANTS: Your marriage is liable to "last" longer than the ability to reproduce. A woman who deliberately delays having a family until she is 40 is being unfair to herself, her husband and to any children she bears. I suspect that your wife fears childbirth for other reasons, and is using this as an excuse to put it off. Talk it over with her. And encourage her to place her confidence in a competent doctor.

Shower Honors Miss McFee

A miscellaneous bridal shower was held for Miss Phyllis McFee, bride-elect of Mr. William Eccard, at the home of Miss Melba White, 208 North Scioto St. Miss White and Mrs. Charles Bass were cohostesses for the occasion.

The evening was spent playing games after which the gifts were opened.

Refreshments were served while the guests listened to a surprise tape-recording of the evening.

Israeli Movie Star Finds Hollywood Demands Changes

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The movies' newest star is an Israeli girl who is finding out how Hollywood can change her life. She has already lost her name and several pounds.

Twenty-year-old Elana Eden has the leading role in the story of "Ruth," 20th Century-Fox's three-million-dollar biblical epic. She was chosen over many name actresses, and now the studio is molding her to fit movie standards.

"They gave me a new name," the dark-haired beauty said wonderingly. "My real name is Cooper, but that sounded too English. They wanted me to have something that sounded more Jewish. So they picked Eden, because it is mentioned in the Bible."

She was also told that her hips were too ample for American movie tastes. So she is taking a daily pounding from a masseuse. At lunch, she had a decorous fruit and cottage cheese salad.

Aside from such minor matters, the studio is high on her possibilities as a dramatic actress. If she succeeds, she owes part of her thanks to another Jewish girl, Anne Frank.

Elana was one of the five finallists for the lead in "The Diary of Anne Frank." A drama student in Israel, she had been chosen for a test during the world-wide search for the movie Anne. When Millie Perkins won the role, Elana returned to her studies.

But producer Sam Engle remembered her test when he was searching for a Ruth. She was flown to London for another test.

The test, turned out well. She was invited here for more. The girl has had more tests than an astronaut and has passed them all.

Cleveland Area Now Feeling Steel Strike

CLEVELAND (AP) — Cleveland's economy, burdened by a 93-day steel strike, is showing signs of strain.

However, business still is better than it was at this time last year, during the recession, the Cleveland Federal Reserve Bank reports.

The most apparent effects of the strike are rising relief rolls, the sharp economic pinch on idle steelworkers, and slowdown of production in industries which rely on steel.

Idle steelworkers have managed to keep up with payments on home and other debts. Said one lending institution official:

"I doubt if we had more than six or seven that couldn't make their payments. The picture may change at the end of the month."

Most overdue bills are extended. Creditors expressed the opinion that the steelworkers, as a group, are pretty good risks.

As the strike drags on, the number of employes idled in related industries continues to grow. For each two striking steelworkers in the Cleveland-Lorain area, an employe in a related industry is idle. The total laid off in steel using industries in this area is 14,000.

Meanwhile, business fell off slightly. The Federal Reserve Bank here reported that last week declines were noted in new and used car sales, building permits, department store sales, rail freight shipments, transit revenue and electric power output. Generally, business levels were above a year ago, the bank said.

The only areas covered in the bank's survey which showed increases last week were retail display advertising and unemployment compensation claims.

Fremont Judge Quitting Office

FREMONT, Ohio (AP) — In a personal protest against what he considers an impossible work load, Judge Bernard J. Hawk steps down from his common pleas bench today in advance of his official resignation Nov. 1.

Judge Hawk announced his resignation Sept. 11. Today, he said, he's cleaning up his work so he can take the rest of the month as an overdue vacation.

The 47-year-old jurist said he has had less than two weeks vacation since he was appointed by former Gov. Lausche three years ago to succeed a deceased judge.

Judge Hawk said he is satisfied with the $9,888 annual salary, but feels the work load is ridiculous. He said he hopes his action will spur the Legislature to corrective action.

Alaska Homestead Job Labeled Tough

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A young man wanting to homestead in Alaska needs more than muscles, sinew, an axe and the pioneer spirit, says the Rt. Rev. William T. Gordon Jr., Episcopal bishop of Alaska.

He also needs about $10,000.

The bishop said the much publicized Michigan '59er caravan is regarded in Alaska as a prime example of inadequate planning. He added that the original objective of the caravan failed, some returned, and some found jobs elsewhere but "those who stayed have been undergoing hardships that none ever contemplated."

Can Yankee Dollar Become Too Strong?

Canadians Believe Their Currency Now Is Embarrassing

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—A dollar can be so strong as to be embarrassing too.

Americans who fret because some Europeans are wondering out loud if the U. S. dollar isn't weakening can take heart today in the word that many Canadians complain that the Canadian dollar is too strong.

It sells at a premium of more than five cents over the American dollar. And that, say our northern neighbors, is bad for business —their business.

And those Americans who have been alarmed lest the United States was pricing itself out of the world market may be comforted somewhat to hear that some Canadians complain that goods can be bought cheaper here than there —their business.

The American dollar situation arises because the total of what we pay foreigners for their products plus what we extend in the form of foreign aid and what we spend abroad on upkeep of military bases and the like—that total exceeds the amount we get for what we sell to other countries.

Hence, other lands have built up their reserves of gold—by buying it from us—and their dollar reserves by putting them in high interest bearing U. S. securities. This makes their currencies look much better than they did a few years back.

It hasn't really weakened the American dollar yet—despite the big outflow of our gold—but it hasn't strengthened it either, by a long shot.

The Canadian situation is a bit different. They still buy more from us than they sell us. This normally would make our dollar stronger than theirs. But in recent years, American dollars have been flowing into Canada in the form of investments, making the overall balance all in favor of the Canadian dollar, and thus putting it at a premium over the American one.

Still another reason for the Canadian dollar's premium status is advanced by speakers at the convention of the Canadian Exporters Assn.

They say the borrowing by Canadian provinces and municipalities in the United States is partly to blame.

Putting the blame, at least in part, on the borrowings by provinces and municipalities, strikes a familiar note this side of the border.

The need of American states and communities to meet their own growing pains has sent them into the money market here for funds in record volume. This has the demand for loans and in sending interest rates to 30-year highs. It also has increased the tax burden.

Cadillac

The Fifty-fifth . . . and the Finest!

It was shortly after the turn of the century that the first Cadillac car—"the automobile built to the highest standards it is possible to enforce on the production of a motor car"—made its appearance.

Every year since—save for a period when Cadillac devoted its energies to the national defense—a new interpretation of this unique goal has been presented to the world's motorists.

The superlative motor car illustrated above is the fifty-fifth in this unprecedented succession of distinguished automotive creations.

And it is, far and away, the finest and the noblest Cadillac of them all!

Never before has Cadillac artistry created such elegance of form and line. It has a commanding presence that is uniquely Cadillac.

Never before has Cadillac engineering produced so abundantly. The car is smooth and quiet to a degree that challenges belief.

Never before has Cadillac craftsmanship provided such interior luxury. And the complement of conveniences has never been more satisfying.

No matter how many of the fifty-five Cadillacs you may have owned and enjoyed over the years—you still have a wonderful experience ahead of you in this latest "car of cars."

We suggest you see and drive it very soon. And we hope you will come expecting great things.

Membership chairman, Lawrence Goeller Jr., today reminded all organizations, families, businesses and individuals that Friday will be the last day to obtain charter memberships in the newly formed Historical Society.

Anyone making application on or before Friday will be considered a charter member and will receive an engraved certificate stating such.

Applications are available at the County Public Library and on all counters at the four local banks.

Next meeting of the PCHS is slated for Monday when membership figures should be released. Location of meeting has not been set.

Permit Is Needed For Spike Heels

MOBILE, Ala. (AP) — Spike heels are illegal in Mobile but a way is provided for women to wear them without breaking the law.

Women will be given a permit which will relieve the city of responsibility in any accidents resulting from falls on city streets and sidewalks. The free permit would apply for all spike heels a woman owns.

An ordinance adopted by the city commissioners bans heels higher than 1½ inches which are less than an inch in diameter.

The ordinance was proposed last week after the commissioners were told that about 50 damage suits had been filed against the city during the past two years by women who had fallen on streets and sidewalks.

Steel Worker Family Now Feeling Pinch

MORRISVILLE, Pa. (AP) — "It's getting difficult. As a matter of fact we are at rock bottom, although there are other families far worse off than we are."

This, explains Helen Galambos, 33, is how the steel strike has affected her family. Her husband is one of the 6,100 employes on strike at U.S. Steel Corp. Fairless Works. They have a 6½-month-old daughter.

Mrs. Galambos says they are a month behind on their mortgage payments and have not been able to pay other bills.

"We're cutting on food where we can," she adds. "We are not eating the way we used to. Many of our meals are stews. We are buying less meat and when we do get it, it's the cheaper grades."

Many other families like the Galambos are in financial trouble. Mortgages are going unpaid. Bills are piling up. Christmas is approaching and there's no money for childrens' toys.

But the wives are not pressuring their husbands to rush into a settlement. Most take the position that their husbands, since they've been out this long, might just as well stay out a little longer until they get what they want.

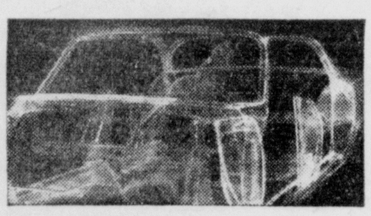
BUILT A NEW SOLID WAY TO GIVE YOU SOLID SATISFACTION

CHRYSLER ENGINEERING INTRODUCES A NEW KIND OF PLYMOUTH THAT MARKS A MAJOR BREAKTHROUGH IN CAR DESIGN. BODY AND FRAME UNIT ARE WELDED TOGETHER AS ONE, IN A NEW WAY. MANY PARTS THAT WORK LOOSE, RATTLE AND NEED FIXING IN ORDINARY CARS ARE ELIMINATED. THIS LOW-PRICE '60 PLYMOUTH IS STRONGER AND ROOMIER. IT USES LESS GAS THAN BEFORE. IT RIDES MORE COMFORTABLY, WE BELIEVE, THAN ANY OTHER CAR IN ITS CLASS.



PLYMOUTH'S NEW DURA-QUIET UNIBODY is a rigidly-formed structure, locked by approximately 5400 precise welds. It has no conventional body bolts, braces, struts or stays to give trouble. Road noises and road shocks are dampened. Even the sound of the wind is hushed.

We doubt if any car at any price has ever ridden or handled as well as this new low-price automobile. Practical Stabilizer Design, incorporating rear stabilizer fins, adds stability on the road, cuts wind resistance, gives better gas mileage.

It will suit you particularly if you want a feeling of quality and a sense of craftsmanship. It is built carefully and precisely. We believe there is no other car in the low-price field that resembles it.

AN ALL-NEW INCLINED OVERHEAD VALVE "6" IS AMONG FIVE PLYMOUTH ENGINE OPTIONS FOR 1960. The first inclined engine ever in an American passenger car is the new Plymouth 30-D Economy Six, most powerful "6" in America. Time Needed To Prepare For Summit

WASHINGTON (AP)—U. S. officials said today it will be 10 days or two weeks before the Western powers work out an agreement on the timing of a summit conference with the Soviet Union.

One tentative date used here is Dec. 7, but authorities are by no means certain summit preparations can be completed by that time.

The preliminary meetings probably will center around a parley in Washington of Western leaders —President Eisenhower, British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan French President Charles de Gaulle and West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer.

Adenauer came out Tuesday for a Western summit meeting when he met with newsmen at Bonn. In Washington, top diplomatic officials privately supported the idea which, in fact, has been under discussion among Western capitals for several days.

Eisenhower and Secretary of State Christian A. Herter decided last week, following Macmillan's re-election in Britain, that they would prefer to have the summit meeting with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev before the end of the year. They also decided that if there were compelling reasons for delay they could wait until next year.

South Pole Negotiations Opened Today

WASHINGTON (AP)—Representatives of 12 nations open an antarctic conference today to negotiate a treaty which would bar military armaments and installations from the vast frozen continent around the South Pole.

Secretary of State Christian A. Herter was scheduled to welcome the conference delegates.

President Eisenhower initiated the antarctic treaty project last year with a proposal that all countries directly interested in the south polar region should negotiate in accord to minimize international friction there, assure cooperation, scientific research and exploration, and dedicate the region to peaceful purposes.

The 12 nations now meeting here include the Soviet Union along with the United States, Britain and France.

American officials are optimistic about the prospects for the meeting's success. The chief reason is that Antarctica is so remote that it does not involve immediate security interests.

In addition to the Big Four, the countries participating are Argentina, Australia, Belgium, Chile, Japan, New Zealand, Norway and South Africa.

Area School News

MONROE TWP.

The Eighth Grade has been taking up interest and percentage in arithmetic, and in English they have been reviewing sentences and sentence structure. In science they have just finished Topic III over storm areas. In history they have been reading about the Civil War, and in physical education they are learning some different basketball shots.

October 3, the Seniors had a scrap and paper drive. We wish to thank everyone who helped to make it a success. Tuesday, October 6, we had a skating party. Although it wasn't a success, we enjoyed having it. This week Miss Janet Stoer (senior) was elected to represent Monroe at the Pumpkin Show.

In English we have been studying the basal parts of a sentence. In literature we have completed the beginnings of literature up to the Shakespearean Era. In chemistry we have been working in our chemistry workbooks and doing some experiments. We have been studying the Constitution of the United States in American Government.

The First Grade now has an enrollment of 33. Some of them are reading from the book "We Look and See." Others are reading "We Work and Play." They have made colored leaves to put up in their room. Now they plan to make some jack-o-lanterns.

This six weeks the Fourth Grade has six boys and 14 girls who had perfect attendance. They have started a new unit of study "The Eskimos of the Far North." In connection with their study they are building an Eskimo village on their library table. They now have several igloos completed. They have learned that the Eskimos are trying out a new kind of igloo made of plastic blocks. They are enjoying experiments and activities showing what makes things move. Force may come from air molecules, gravity and muscles.

THE BIOLOGY class has been involved in the study of insects for the past two weeks. Friday, Mr Stewart, general science teacher, displayed a small copperhead snake which Jeff and Larry Bigam found on the steps of their home. All of them were careful even with about ¼ inch of glass between them and the little monster. He certainly packed a wallop when he coiled up and struck at the sides of the jar. However, he is safe to watch now that he has been executed.

The Eighth Grade science class has found a difference between the study of science and fiction—even superstitution. You should have seen the list of superstitutions that are common among our citizens today. They have also been observing weather, the types of clouds, temperature changes, barometric reading (air pressure), relative humidity, and wind direction. They have received their first issue of Current Science and Aviation and have been using them to correlate with their weather data.

This year the home economics class is studying sewing and taking up various projects relating to sewing. Most of the orientation has been with types of stitches, color coordination, parts of sewing machine, types of seams, various equipment needed for handwork, and the making of notebooks. They have already begun their first project (an apron). To help meet the extra expenses involved in their department, they have taken up one money project (selling greeting cards).

For the past few weeks the seventh grade geography class has has been studying all aspects of conservation. To conclude their study they will participate in a field trip to the Paul Peck farm, near Atlanta.

Unemployment Still Is Tough Nut To Crack

Problem Hits Nation Despite Prosperity; Deep Reason Studied

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—The high total of those out of jobs is still a problem to lick.

Seasonal factors color the report for September by the Labor Department. Outside work is slackening off, releasing many who want work only in the summer, and students are returning to school. This cuts the labor force.

The report for October will give a more accurate view of what the steel strike and other factors are doing to the unemployment problem.

The steel strike is causing an increasing number of men and women to be laid off in plants where steel supplies have run low, or run out. But these workers know that when steel is on hand again they'll be back on the job.

Part of the trouble goes deeper. The economy is producing all it needs or wants to consume without work.

The answer usually given to this is to counsel patience. In time, consumer demands will catch up and need more workers. This is small comfort to those out of work now. And besides there are many thousands more growing up and entering the labor force.

Another answer is that there is always a certain number out of work because they are between jobs. Doing seasonal work, as in farming, they move from area to area, from job to job.

And some of the more cynical or hard boiled say it's good for the economy to have a pool of unemployed to draw upon when demand for their labor develops quickly in one industry or another.

Some even more cynical say that the growth of relief programs may have dulled the urge to hunt for jobs or at least a tendency to be choosy about them.

So the current figures on unemployment have to be read with all these things in mind.

Mechanization is making it possible for many plants to make more products faster and with less men. Quite naturally, this is less than welcomed by all the workers in the plant before the new machines came along.

This is one of the issues dividing management and labor in the steel strike.

Economists point out that the history of mechanization has been that in time it actually creates more jobs, if not necessarily in the plant in question. But that takes time. And the union man with a family to feed right now has small taste for the long wait while things work out.

Is Home-Building Promoter Obligated on New School?

CINCINNATI (AP) — Out in Mount Healthy school district, they are debating a new solution to a problem that is becoming more significant as the rush of American families to the suburbs picks up speed.

The problem: Should builders put up land, free or at cost, as sites for new schools? Or, as an alternative, should builders contribute $100 or $200 per house to a school-site fund, and pass the assessment on the homebuyer?

"Yes," says the district planning commission. "No," say the builders.

Several months ago, the plan this kind of help.

So far only one has come through. A new elementary school is going up on the 11-acre tract which that builder furnished free.

Mount Healthy, like most other suburban communities in Ohio, has a school population that runs far ahead of school facilities. Its school district overlaps the city limits on the west, north and south and the unincorporated part is rapidly being filled up with housing developments.

In the five-year period ending next year, the district will have added an estimated 8,000 children.

The district by 1968 expects to need 11 elementary schools (it now has four, with two being built), two junior highs (none now) and a large central high school. (It now has one high school).

Last year, district voters approved a $1,510,000 bond issue. It has a $480,000 high-school bond issue on the ballot this fall. If that passes, the district will then be up against the statutory ceiling — bonded indebtedness not to exceed nine per cent of the assessed valuation of the district.

Operating expenses are not a problem. The district's 13.98-mill rate for school operations is lower than many others in the county.

Rex Ralph, school superintendend, says the district each year gets a little more borrowing power as new houses are put on the tax duplicate.

But he says it will take substantial extra help to maintain today's standards over the next decade. Annual bond issues, assuming they are approved, won't do it alone.

Already kindergarten has been cut out. Planning commission members say there is a good chance lower grades must soon have to be put on a half-day basis.

The commission believes builders have a moral responsibility to help out.

"Of course, it's true they are filling a demand by building homes," Harold Fine says. "But it is also true that by mass-production techniques they are able to build more economically—and at the same time these techniques are almost overnight dumping heavy loads of school children on our school system."

Orville Brown, executive director of the Home Builders' Assn., says:

"We go all the way back to the principle on which our educational system was founded. That is that education is a public responsibility and not the responsibility of some individual or of a certain segment of the population—in this case, a group of new home buyers."

British Seek To Improve Bonn Relations

LONDON (AP)—Britain is planning a major diplomatic drive to improve relations with West Germany after seven months of bickering with Chancellor Konrad Adenauer.

Relations between London and Bonn have been frankly bad since Prime Minister Harold Macmillan journeyed to see Nikita Khrushchev in Moscow last February at the height of the Berlin crisis. Macmillan went without first consulting Adenauer.

Now the British leader has ordered his experts to get cracking on a program to restore relations between the two countries. He has given the task top priority.

Each government has its explanation for the strains and stresses existing between them.

Adenauer has tended to blame the British press, which he suspects is inspired by people he once described as "wire-pullers" in the Foreign Office.

Macmillan and his associates have been inclined to find fault with Adenauer himself. Some have speculated out loud whether the chancellor, at 83, is up to the burdens of office and is still able to follow new concepts of allied policy.

Adenauer evidently thinks any deal with the Soviet Union must be at Germany's expense. He rejects any role implying an inferior status.

Macmillan seems to reason that the facts of life in the nuclear age have to be faced and one is that Germany is not going to be united again on allied terms.

2000 To Be Laid Off At Euclid Body Plant

CLEVELAND (AP) — White Motor Co., builder of heavy trucks has laid off 150 employes because of the steel strike, and General Motors is anticipating layoff of 2,000 at its Euclid Fisher Body station wagon plant Friday.

A GM spokesman said that a shortage of steel is causing the layoffs at Euclid. Earlier this month GM laid off more than 500 workers at its Fisher Body plant on Coit Road for the same reason.

City Jail Inmates To Get Bear Meat

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — Portland city jail inmates will be served bear meat, probably in stew.

A motorist telephoned police and said he had run over a bear on the Columbia Gorge Highway east of Portland.

Would the police like it? Yes.

Big Plastic Sphere To Be Tested Soon

WASHINGTON (AP)—A huge aluminum-coated plastic sphere designed to serve as either an earth satellite or a moon probe is to be tested soon.

A spokesman for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration declined today to pinpoint the date set for the testing beyond saying it will be before the end of the year.

The sphere, details of which were made public several months ago, is undergoing tests at NASA's Langley research center near Newport News, Va.

Researchers are hopeful that the sphere, which measures 100 feet in diameter when inflated, can be utilized as a communications satellite to relay radio signals from one point on earth to other parts of the world.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. Michael V. DiSalle has asked Montgomery County Sheriff Bernard L. Keiter to cooperate with the FBI in a federal case pending against nine former and present county deputy sheriffs.

In a letter to Keite, DiSalle mentioned a letter he received from the Civil Rights Division of the U. S. Department of Justice which charges Keiter is withholding information from the FBI.

Kingston Unit Pointing to Cage Opener

Varsity members chosen were Bill Carmean, David Nogle, Bill Chaffin, Dan Vollmar, Roy Congrove, Russell Kempton, David Hood, George Targee and Gary Cobb.

The remaining varsity berths will go to either Jimmy Beavers, Bill Moss or Bernard Davis. One of the three will be sent to the reserves.

* * *

THE VARSITY has been working on individual and team fundamentals with emphasis on speed. Nogle, Carmean, Vollmar and Chaffin have missed the last two practices due to illness.

They seem to have the front running positions on the starting team, Walsh said today. Congrove, Kempton and Targee are scrapping for the fifth slot.

Cobb and Hood, two juniors, have looked good, but still are bothered by inexperience which should be overcome with actual game participation.

Beavers, Moss and Davis, a sharp-shooting sophomore, are attempting to replace the older veterans. Kingston's reserve first team strength will not be too strong unless several of the junior members develop faster, Walsh said.

Junior high practice started Wednesday under the tutelage of Walsh. Tom Shoemaker coaches the reserve squad. Kingston opens the season against Williamsport on November 6.

Booster Club Fete Set Here Friday

"Booster Club Night" will be a special event at Friday's Circleville - Greenfield football game here.

The Circleville Boosters, devoted to better athletics at CHS, will be recognized for their outstanding efforts to promote local sports.

Officers and directors of the club will be introduced to the crowd during pre-game ceremonies. They will sit on the bench with Tiger players during the game. Special recognition will be given to all local fans who have joined the Boosters this year.

A main event of the evening will be dedication of new football uniforms purchased this season by the Booster Club. The Tigers will be wearing the flashy gear for the first time.

* * *

THE sparkling uniforms include bright red jersies with white numbers on the front, back and shoulders and black and white tips on the three-quarter length sleeves.

The black trousers have a white stripe down each side. The front of the pants is shiny rayon type material and the back is made of form-fitting three-way stretch cloth.

Purchase of the uniforms was a main project for the Booster Club this year. Thanks to local businessmen, professional men and a host of sports fans, the club raised more than $900 to buy the much-needed outfits.

Booster members, CHS coaches and players joined in the drive here to swell club membership. The campaign was launched several weeks ago and was well - received by local business firms and sports fans.

Another Booster project now underway is the presentation of a portable television set. The TV will be presented during halftime of the Washington C. H. game which is slated here November 13.

Touch of Pro Football Seen In New Notre Dame Outfit

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

New names and faces, a new attack and the smart look of professional coaching will mark the Notre Dame football team that plays Michigan State in the national television game Saturday.

Coach Joe Kuharich, who left the pro Washington Redskins last winter to take over for deposed Coach Terry Brennan at Notre Dame, has turned out a team that has won two of its first three games despite a plague of injuries and inexperience.

In fact, Kuharich has seven sophomores on the first team for Saturday's game, including three in the backfield, and a line that has a sophomore left side.

Veteran quarterback George Izo, who played his first 1959 game against California last week, is the only veteran in the backfield. He is supported by sophs George Sefcic and Angelo Daberio as halfbacks, and Gerry Gray at fullback.

Daberio and Gray have seen a good deal of action, with the latter taking over for the injured Jim Crotty against California and winding up as the team's leading ground-gainer with 55 yards in 12 tries, and one touchdown.

Crotty and guard Myron Pottios, both hurt last week, will see no action, with the latter finished for the year with torn knee ligaments.

All of these annoyances have left Kuharich, a former Notre Dame football player, undaunted. He has installed a T-formation pro-type offense, where both of his ends are split 15 to 20 yards, with a halfback in the slot between an end and tackle.

Darrtown Is Baseball Capital Now

DARRTOWN, Ohio (AP) — This may come as a shock to Los Angeles but on the main street in this town with its population of 200 there are two big signs which say "Darrtown, Baseball Capital of the World."

In his home a block away, Walter Alston responded in his usual reticent manner when told members of the Baseball Writers Assn. of America had voted him National League Manager of the Year in an Associated Press poll.

Alston is manager of the Los Angeles Dodgers, who last week won the baseball World Series.

"It sure is nice," said Alston with his shy smile, "but it was a team effort."

The Dodgers last year finished seventh in the National League and then, this year, they came on to tie Milwaukee for the National League pennant, win it in a two-game playoff and then beat the Chicago White Sox in a six-game World Series.

"The fellows worked hard for it," said Alston. "They started the first day of spring training, or even before, because all of them reported in good shape."

What about next year?

"We don't intend to stand pat," he said, "but I can't name any particular spot we want to improve."

Durocher Bares Cleveland Offer

DETROIT (AP) — Leo Durocher says he was offered a three-year contract to manage the Cleveland Indians but turned it down the day before the American League club rehired Joe Gordon.

"There were a couple of other things I wanted in the contract," Durocher told newsmen Wednesday night in explaining why he turned down an offer made by Cleveland General Manager Frank Lane and Vice President Nate Dolin.

"They met with me in Pittsburgh about two weeks before the end of the season," Durocher said. "They made me a solid, three-year offer."

Brown Defense Worries Cards

Cleveland Coach's Theory Halts Team

CLEVELAND (AP)—A defensive maneuver dreamed up by Coach Paul Brown of the Cleveland Browns is giving the Chicago Cardinals fits.

Brown figured the Cardinals, who display their fancy double wing offense here Sunday, could be stopped if the defense concentrated on upsetting plays to the outside—the rollout passes and option plays.

Using this strategy, Cleveland walloped the Cards 34-7 in the mud at Chicago two weeks ago.

Bill McPeak, a Washington Redskins defensive coach, said his team spotted the maneuver in films of the game.

"It stopped the Cardinals the week before so we adopted it."

The result: Washington 23, Cards 14.

There is one drawback to Brown's plan. It leaves the center thinly defended, opening the way for smashes up the middle. Yardage through the middle is conceded, while the defense protects against the long gainer.

Said Chicago Coach Frank Ivy: "The Redskins' defense were set up so that our fullback was wide open. For that reason fullback Mal Hammack did most of the rushing."

However, the Cards weren't able to capitalize on the inside plays.

Ivy was asked why he didn't use halfback John Crow, rated one of Chicago's top backs.

"Crow was called on twice but he didn't get the ball either time. Something went wrong with the handoffs.

"And that, by the way, is our main problem. We've made too many mistakes and have gumbled too many times."

Coach Brown isn't expected to try the same defense again this week. After two successive defeats, the Cards probably will be laying for more of same.

Deer Permits On Sale Here

Deer hunting permits are on sale here at the usual places, it was announced today.

Bow and arrow season on the white tails starts today and runs through December 31. Gun season in Ohio is slated for December 10, 11 and 12.

Officials reminded today that only one deer can be taken for the season, whether it be by bow and arrow or by gun.

As was the case last year, the deer season will be open in all 88 Ohio counties.

Quail season, opening for the first time in Ohio for many years, starts November 16. Nimrods are warned that hunting the birds will be restricted to specified areas.

Tigers Press For Big Test With McClain

A long scrimmage marked Circleville High School grid practice yesterday.

Main objective of the hard work was focused on Greenfield's invasion here for a battle of the undefeateds in South Central Ohio League play.

Greenfield will roll into town with two straight loop wins and a 4-0 mark for the season. The CHS Tigers have won their two SCO starts, tied one and lost one.

Big and fast adequately describes Greenfield, a team loaded with veterans. Circleville is shy on the experience side, is not big, but bridges the gap with good conditioning and a solid gridiron system.

The locals have operated with precision in their last three games and hope to do the same Friday evening.

A vast crowd of fans is expected to be on hand for the important contest. So far the weather outlook appears good, meaning a perfect football night come Friday.

Here are the current SCOL standings.

Mighty Satisfying! OLDS FOR '60!

NINETY-EIGHT HOLIDAY SPORTSEDAN

'60 OLDS

THERE'S NOTHING LIKE A NEW CAR... MAKE YOURS A ROCKET ENGINE OLDS!

Come for the quietest ride you've ever tried . . . a Quadri-Balanced Ride in a '60 Rocket!

What is Quadri-Balanced Ride? It's the smoothest, steadiest and quietest ride in Oldsmobile history . . . and you owe it to yourself to try it out on the road! This dramatic advance is the result of new "ride-engineering" introduced on the '60 Olds. Vibra-Tuned body mountings of live-action rubber that are up to 50% thicker have been electronically located at the points of least vibration on Oldsmobile's Guard-Beam Frame to insulate the body from road noise and harshness. Try a '60 Rocket on the road today!

'Back of Week' Likes Defense

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP) —Surprise: quarterback Richie Lucas of Penn State, the Associated Press Back of the Week, loves to play defense.

And, says Coach Rip Engle, Lucas proved it Saturday in undefeated Penn State's 17-11 victory over Army.

"You usually think of a quarterback as the glamor boy in a football game," Engle said. "But in the Army game, Lucas proved that he can go in there and do the tough, dirty job the same as any other football player."

It was both Lucas' defensive and offensive play against Army that earned him the Back of the Week honors Wednesday. He twice intercepted important passes, made several key tackles, scored two touchdowns, passed for 97 yards and ran for 60.

Stanford Pair Tops Receivers

NEW YORK (AP) — For the first time within memory two players from the same team rank 1-2 among the nation's college pass receivers.

The No. 1 man is Stanford's Chris Burford, who caught two aerials against Washington last week to boost his total to 19 for four games, with a total yardage of 257. His teammate, Ben Robinson, has caught 16 good for 244 yards.

Army's lonely end, Bill Carpenter, also has caught 16, but has carried them four yards less than Robinson.

Trio Is Reappointed To Board of Appeals

'Toothpick' Jones Wins ERA Crown

NEW YORK (AP)—Sam (Toothpick) Jones of the San Francisco Giants, with a hefty assist from the rival Los Angeles Dodgers, edged defending champion Stu Miller to win the 1959 earned run title.

Jones, a 21-game winner, allowed 85 earned runs in 271 innings for an earned run average of 2.82. Miller, Giants' slowball specialist, gave up 53 earned runs in 168 innings for a 2.84 mark, statistics compiled by the Associated Press revealed today.

The best earned run average by far among the regular hurlers was posted by Roger Craig of Los Angeles. He finished with 2.06. The veteran right-hander, however, pitched only 152 2-3 innings, 1 1-3 innings short of the minimum requirement.

The Dodgers' sensational comeback and ultimate 12-inning victory in the final playoff game Sept. 29 cost Craig the ERA crown. If the Dodgers had lost, Craig would have worked the third game and almost certainly picked up the 1 1-3 innings he needed. As it turned out, he started the first game of the World Series against the Chicago White Sox, pitching 2 1-3 innings which do not count in the regular season's records.

Jones, who did a workhorse job as a starter and reliever, pitched four shutouts, including a seven-inning no-hitter against St. Louis in his final start, Sept. 26. Miller had an 8-7 record.

Bob Buhl, Milwaukee, finished third. A 15-game winner, Buhl allowed 63 earned runs in 198 innings for a 2.86 ERA. Warren Spahn of the Braves was fourth with 2.96.

Vern Law, Pittsburgh, and Gene Conley, Philadelphia, tied for fifth at 3.00.

State OKs Knollwood Sewer District, So Does County

The State Department of Health recently approved detailed plans of the proposed sewer and sewage treatment plant for the Knollwood Village sewer district subject to certain conditions.

No approval for the Knollwood sewer district will be given unless the County Commissioners pass and enforce the following regulations satisfactory to the Director of Health, Ralph E. Dwork:

Prohibit the establishment or maintenance of privies, cesspools and private sewage disposal facilities on premises which are accessible to the public sanitary sewers;

Prohibit the discharge into sanitary sewers of roof water, surface or subsoil drainage and other clean waste waters;

Prohibit the discharge of sewage into storm drains;

PROVIDE FOR THE issuance of permits for sewer connections and for their inspection and recording;

The county to provide for proper maintenance of the sewage system;

The county shall provide for technical supervision of the operation of the sewage treatment plant and maintain daily records of its operation to be submitted the State Health Department monthly;

Additional sewage treatment facilities shall be installed when deemed necessary by the state;

That this proposal shall become void on Oct. 1, 1960, unless construction of the proposed sewer system is started before that date.

Tuesday the County Commissioners accepted the state's conditions. Elmer Barrett & Associates, Chillicothe engineering firm, Tuesday submitted detailed plans of the sewer district and estimated assessments for the Knollwood property owners.

Leading Dems Oppose Giving A-Weapons

WASHINGTON (AP) — A proposal that the United States arm its Western European allies with nuclear weapons was opposed today by two influentail Democratic senators.

The proposal was one of several made in a report presented Wednesday to the Senate Foreign Relations Committee by a private study group. The suggestions will be considered by the committee in making its own recommendations next year on the future of U.S. foreign policy.

Senators Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn) and Mike Mansfield (D-Mont) also disagreed with a suggestion that this country send another division of ground troops to Europe as a token of its intent to strengthen NATO defenses.

Humphrey said the report, prepared by the Foreign Policy Research Institute of the University of Pennsylvania, represented "wishful thinking."

Sen. J. William Fulbright (D-Ark), chairman of the committee, previously had commended the report as a "hard-boiled view of the immediate and potential dangers confronted by Western Europe." But he said it did not necessarily reflect members' views.

Humphrey, who heads the Senate Disarmament subcommittee, said, "If we start passing nuclear weapons around, the Russians will be under great pressure to do the same thing. They might even pass them to China and in my opinion that would be a tragic development."

In the evening, the club held a wiener roast and get-to-gether at the Idle Hour Ranch on Arnhart Hill, Route 56.

Texans Mum On $290,320 Bank Shortage

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Authorities kept mum today about what became of $290,320 they accused a bank official of misapplying.

Federal agents charged James Cook Evans, 52, thin-haired, quiet and mild, in the case Wednesday but refused to disclose many details. He waived preliminary hearing and went free under only $2,500 bond.

The money disappeared in the past two years, investigators said, from the First National Bank in Dallas, one of the city's largest. Evans was an assistant vice president and had worked there since 1925.

Ben H. Wooten, president of the bank, said he understood the shortage involved five other men and a wildcat oil drilling project. No other bank employe had anything to do with the shortage, he said.

The FBI charged Evans specifically with a false entry in bank records crediting a nonexistent $3,000 deposit. Evans had no comment.

"The misapplication came about through the making of fictitious deposits and the paying and concealing of drafts drawn for collection," Wooten said.

Fidelity bonds covered the full amount of the loss, the bank president said.

Other employes discovered a shortage Tuesday when illness kept Evans off the job, and the bank notified the FBI. Evans was fired.

Girl, 15, Tells Of Poisoning Her Parents

OLATHE, Kan. (AP)—The parents of a 15-year-old girl died of poison Wednesday and police said the girl admitted giving them the death-dealing potion under the pretense it was a "thrill powder that would give them a boost."

Sheriff Lynn Thomas quoted the girl, Diane Roberts, as saying her motive was to kill her father because he had threatened to kill her.

William Roberts, 43, the father; and his wife, Evelyn, 42, died in a Kansas City, Mo., hospital about four hours after they became violently ill at their home in Prairie Village, a Kansas City suburb.

Diane was an only child.

No charges were filed immediately.

Sheriff Thomas said the girl told this story:

She bought some roach powder at a drugstore Monday. Tuesday night she mixed the powder in drinking glasses with grape juice, water, flour and sugar.

"I told them it was a thrill powder that would give them a boost."

"They drank some and started laughing real hard. Then she and Dad said 'It is terrible,' and they both got real sick and vomited all over.

"Daddy stood at the bottom of the stairs and screamed — 'God help me, God help me, please take care of me—' then he laid down on the floor."

She said she then called relatives who in turn called a physician.

"I did it because Mom and Dad were always criticizing everything she told Sheriff Thomas.

Toledo OKs Extension Of Life for Its Malls

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—City council voted today to extend the test of four downtown pedestrian malls to Nov. 23 because of the Young Democrats National Convention to be held here Nov. 18-21.

The mall test, previously extended one since the opening last Aug. 3, was to have ended Nov. 16.

Gene Tierney Now Clerking In Dress Shop

TOPEKA, Kan. (AP) — "I was so thrilled I didn't really know what I was buying," said one flustered patron after dealing with a new clerk at a Topeka dress shop.

"She's so nice and patient," said another. "I don't see how she can do it after being a famous actress."

"She" is actress Gene Tierney, star of some 30 movies, former wife of famed dress designer Oleg Cassini and once one of Aly Khan's girl friends.

Miss Tierney, 37, is an outpatient at the Menninger Foundation, a psychiatric center where she spent eight months for treatment of mental illness last year.

She began working in the dress shop about 10 days ago. She personally applied for the job, and the shop manager, D. L. Talmage, said he understood the work is part of her therapy.

Miss Tierney had nothing to say. She wouldn't permit an interview nor pose for photographers. Talmage wouldn't say how much he is paying her and he wouldn't allow newsmen to interview other clerks. The Menninger Clinic never discusses its patients.

County Receives Fairfield's Tax For Teays Valley

The Pickaway County Auditor's office recently received the semi-annual apportionment of taxes from Fairfield County.

The entire amount of the August settlement will go to the Teays Valley School District. Net amount received was $5,832.46.

Real estate taxes amounted to $5,961.99 and trailer taxes totaled $11.22 for total receipts of $5,973.21.

Deductions included $140.75 for Fairfield County Auditor's fees for the $5,832.46 net amount.

The United States bought 20 per cent of Turkey's exports and supplied 18 per cent of her imports during the first seven months of 1959.

Weekly Food Review

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Supermarkets are making a big fuss over feathers and fish this week.

Many are pushing broilers, fryers and Rock Cornish hens as the week's best bargain. Those near the sea are putting extra low price tags on shrimp, scallops and other delicacies from the deep.

Heavy production of chickens has kept prices down for some time.

Rock Cornish hens, once in the luxury class, have been brought down to the bargain level with increasing frequency in recent years.

Supplies of shrimp and scallops are seasonally heavy, which accounts for their emphasis. Halibut, haddock and swordfish also are featured in some places.

Bacon is the No. 1 attraction in some places, heading a list of pork buys including loins, chops and canned hams. Steak is marked down 3 to 6 cents in a few areas, while rib roast also is lower by 4 to 10 cents a pound, but only in scattered sections.

Bargains among vegetables are headed by potatoes and onions, although both staples edged a shade higher this week.

Other outstanding bargains include sweet potatoes, spinach, cooking greens, butternut or acorn squash and endive and escarole for salad lovers. You can get good buys, too, among snap beans, cauliflower, cucumbers, green onions, radishes, broccoli and all types of cabbage.

Recognizing the glut of apples, especially from Eastern growing areas, the Department of Agriculture has designated today as the start of National Apple Week. McIntosh, Jonathan and Stayman varities are especially cheap among the numerous bargain varieties.

Limes, bananas and pears also are rated as outstanding fruit bargains.

Ohio Hospital Care Pay Cut Hinted

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The State Welfare Department will cut its hospital care payments for aged patients to a fractional formula Nov. 1, unless hospitals of physicians come up with a better idea.

Mrs. Mary Gorman, state welfare director, said the new formula will go into effect the day before new aid-for-aged legislation goes into effect.

The state, she said, will pay full per diem hospital rates only for the first 10 days for aged payments. For the next 10 days, it will pay 75 per cent of per diem costs and for the succeeding hospitalization period, 50 per cent.

Mexican Street Car Mishap Is Fatal to 2

MEXICO CITY (AP)—A streetcar on the way to the barn Tuesday hit a car, jumped the tracks and crashed into a power line post. The motorman, alone in the streetcar, was killed. An ambulance attendant stepped on a wire cut by the crash and was electrocuted. The driver of the car was injured only slightly.
